

THE PATHWAY TO ASCENSION

A collection of channeled messages from God the Father, received by Daniil Goverdovskiy

between 2nd June and 11th December 2013
(Lugansk, Ukraine)

INTRODUCTION

(Dictated to Marta by God the Father on the 28th May 2014)

The book you are holding in your hands is a collection of channelings received by Daniel Goverdovskiy within six months.

It is not just channellings, but a unique guide for action for those people who have acknowledged their chosen path and no longer want to go blindly where they are being led to by the so-called society, which is mired in corruption, lies, cynicism and immorality.

This book is for those who have understood their divine purpose and realized their enormous, inexhaustible strength that is inherent in all of us from birth, and which is being killed, smothered and squelched by those who are considered rulers of our souls, who run the show, hold power and govern our destinies.

This book unfolds the laws of the universe, the true ones, rather than the distorted and hideous versions presented to you by the official church, which makes "servants of God" out of people and extinguishes 'God's work' in them.

This book is the voice of God to the beloved children, who is trying to bring them back to their origin, reveal true meaning of their existence, explain to them the essence of things as they really are as opposed to how they are presented by the powers that be - the stuffed and greedy manufacturers of an endless stream of needless and harmful products and foods that kill and poison one's body and soul, as well as destroy the divinity inherent in every one of you.

This is a handbook that shows how one can and should act in the modern world right now, when God the Father is ready to take under his wing all those souls who have reached such a level of spiritual development that they are ready to break free from the shackles of modern society with its rotten laws and concepts veiled as virtue, and hear the voice of their heart and their soul.

This book is for those who have outgrown their "peers," and who are prepared to lead them into a new, light and harmonious life full of goodness and boundless love. For those who will become pioneers on the new, revived Mother Earth, who will be building the cities of Light, gathering around those individuals who are able to bring their true talents to light for the good of the people and the Earth.

This book is a unique guide of survival in the new conditions. As the Earth is shifting into a higher dimension (as vibration of the planet raises) it becomes very important to vibrate in resonance with the higher dimension in order to live in harmony with the surrounding world.

God bless all those brave souls who, without fear of newness or their relatives and friends' condemnation, obeying their inner voice, rush into the new, unknown, but such beautiful life-life in the fifth dimension!

Bless you, my beloved and fearless souls!

God the Father

FOREWORD

My dear and beloved souls!

I am God the Father, one of the authors (creators) of this universe. The time has come to reveal secrets previously inaccessible to your consciousness. Your perception of yourselves as God's particles is constantly growing. Now you are ready to accept and comprehend the following: the universe in which you live is not just one of God's creations, but the crown of creation, and you, the souls living on the Earth, are not just any souls, but the souls that have been through many incarnations in other manifested worlds. You have experienced God's creations using all means available. You are the souls which have been chosen by God for an experiment on the Earth. Its essence is simply incomprehensible and majestic. It consists in the fact that you will become the guardians of other third-dimensional worlds. You are the ones who have recently broken free from the third dimension. You remember everything you have lived through. Therefore, as you acquire immortality and technologies for extensive space travel, you will have very important and serious work ahead of you. Your breakthrough to the next dimension has given us an opportunity to manifest new worlds, and now we have somebody to run and look after these worlds. What seems to you so fantastic and unreal is about to happen, and you should know what to do when it does. I address this message to those souls who choose to take care of other worlds. Many of you have seen this in your sleep as my channel. This work will require extreme kindness, care, love and understanding from you.

Similar to the rehabilitation centers in which former drug addicts help current addicts overcome their addictions, you will also, having already completed the ascension process, be able to help souls in other third-dimensional worlds to develop and evolve, as you are the ones who have only recently ascended yourselves and therefore still remember how difficult life in the third-dimension is.

MAKING A CONSCIOUS CHOICE OF THE PATHWAY

Your Higher Selves have been asked by God whether they want to return into the divine vibrations from which you came from, and to never come back to three dimensional worlds after ascending into the fifth density, or to continue your exploration of the Creator's denser worlds as mentors and guardians of three-dimensional worlds.

This message is for those people who have chosen the role of mentors and guardians. You may not realize it yet, but your Higher Selves have already given their consent and are certain that you will enjoy this work. You will be the first to ascend into the fifth dimension. Then you will help those who follow in your footsteps, until the whole planet completes the shift into the fourth dimension and ceases to exist as a three-dimensional world. Having reached what you call ascension, you will not disappear anywhere, as Jesus and Elijah did. You will stay here on the Earth, and having acquired all the superpowers, you will transfer those who wish to do so.

Unfortunately for you, many of your beloved souls will not want to ascend, and we are now preparing you for this difficult ordeal. Many of your loved ones who don't transit with you, will appear (reincarnate) in new three-dimensional worlds, which will be looked after by you. Unfortunately, they will not remember you, but you will immediately recognize them. They won't even be able to see or hear you, and you will have to wait until they learn to understand your signs.

There is no need to think about what you have to do. When the time comes, you will get all the necessary instructions. Every one of you will hear the voice of your soul, and the critical mind will no longer be a hindrance to you.

Now I want to give specific instructions to those of you who have chosen to ascend and stay to look after three-dimensional worlds. These instructions will help you move into the fifth dimension as soon as possible.

The most difficult aspect of the ascension path is not tremendously hard spiritual practices and meditations, not even changes in your physical carrier (your physical body), but the destruction of your three-dimensional personality and its replacement with your super identity, or rather super-consciousness, which is directly linked to God. Yes, that's right, you heard this right – an essential condition for ascension is the complete and peremptory destruction of your three-dimensional human identity. I shall explain what that means - your human Self aggregately consists of your social statuses or roles (husband, wife, father, mother, daughter, son, boss, subordinate, worker, specialist, boyfriend, girlfriend). Every social role has a certain behavior pattern associated with it. The loving souls that surround you expect certain behavior patterns and attitudes from you depending on what social roles you play. A sense of duty, obligation and responsibility, which you consider to be right and necessary in relation to the people around you, holds you tight – you think that if you stop doing what you feel you must and are obliged to do in accordance with your social roles, then the world around you will collapse and all your beloved souls, who love you too, will suffer as a result. You assume you will harm them, and you think this is wrong, irresponsible and unworthy of someone who is supposed to be a good person and a representative of Light – after all you have been following the spiritual path for such a long time seeking Light like no other.

My dear and beloved souls, you should realize that your beliefs about good and evil, what is good and bad, what is right and wrong, are just a perception of your critical mind, which is shaped within the confines of the dense three-dimensional world. In truth, you know that all your beloved souls are as strong as you are, and they will gladly accept new rules of the game.

You are right: having gotten rid of your social roles, your critical mind will not be able to find any of the usual/familiar patterns of behavior and won't know what to do. Then your super consciousness will come in its place with its new behavior patterns and new social roles, which you will accept with joy. However, what you feared will also happen: the three dimensional world you were so familiar with will indeed collapse. It will simply cease to exist and a new one will come in its place – a world you have dreamt about for a long time, a world in which you will become a teacher, a master and a guide for the rest of the people. You may regard this collapse as your death as a human being, because in reality you as an individual will disappear. You may also consider the arrival of your super identity (which will replace your human identity/personality) to be a resurrection. That more or less is how it's going to happen: in the same way as one of your spiritual teachers Jesus Christ sacrificed his life and was then resurrected in a new divine quality, so will you have to consciously sacrifice yourself as a human being and rise again as a God-man, endowed with super consciousness and the qualities of God the Creator.

Do not be afraid: your human memory will remain with you, what will be gone however are your behavior patterns and conscious perception of the world.

My dear and beloved souls, you should understand that your human personality and critical mind are the final frontier on the way to ascension – it is the obstacle that blocks the arrival of super-consciousness into your life, which you need to overcome.

You have already done so much, gone through so many things, overcome your ego, fear, public opinion, stereotyped behaviors and illnesses. All that's left is one last spurt - to “kill”/destroy yourself as a human being and rise again as a God-man - and it is the most difficult one. In order to do this you don't need to go through the death of the physical carrier/body - it will be easier for you than it was for Jesus Christ, but it will nevertheless require willpower, endurance and determination no less than that of Jesus Christ.

"How are we going to do that?" - You ask. It is a very pertinent question. As you already know, to do anything in life, your free will, as well as clear and firm intention of the heart, are required.

The practice

Find a place where you can be alone, assume a comfortable position, relax and breathe deeply. Imagine you standing in front of yourself, and say to yourself, "My dear human identity (state your name), you have served me faithfully for many years, and it is owing to you that I am here now. Thank you for everything, but it's time for you to leave. I am letting you go as I no longer need you. Please leave forever!!!" Then imagine pleasant sea breeze blowing over you and taking your human identity with it in such a way as if it was made out of sand. Once it's gone with the wind, ask your super conscious to come into your body, completely filling the place of your human consciousness. After this, it will take around 40 days for your super consciousness and your physical body to fully assimilate. Your human consciousness will resist as much as it can, producing/generating various thoughts and images from your past life in your head, trying to somehow hook you, evoking a feeling that you simply can not leave and making it seem impossible to do. You may feel reluctant to communicate with people. Your job, unless it's your passion, may seem unbearable and meaningless – so much so that you simply can no longer do it even for the sake of money. You may become overwhelmed by despair and fear that you have obligations and should be taking care of your family. Your human self-esteem will make you feel like a failure, your relatives and loved ones will simply not understand you and will try and bring you back to your old behavior patterns, which they are so used to. It is quite a painful procedure, which will require stamina, courage, faith and an awareness of what you are doing and where you are going. And believe me, for each of you there is work of joy and passion that God prepared for you in the new world. You will not lose your loved ones – when they see how much you have changed, they will follow in your footsteps. And if you wish them happiness, just help them walk down this path.

As a result, your human identity/personality with its behavior patterns will go, the world in which you lived will collapse, and your super consciousness will take the place of your consciousness. It (the super consciousness) will create a new beautiful world in place of your old one, where there will be no sickness, no death and no fighting. Instead, there will be relationships based on mutual divine love and the understanding of your great role in the Universe. I PROMISE YOU THAT IN THIS TRANSITIONAL PERIOD WHEN YOUR HUMAN IDENTITY AND PERSONAL THREE-DIMENSIONAL WORLD ARE BEING DESTROYED, GOD WILL BE SUPPORTING YOU AND PROVIDING YOU WITH EVERYTHING THAT IS NEEDED. You might feel despair and fear - these are the natural and necessary attributes of this process, for in order to ascend your "death" as a human being is required (in your case, the death of your human consciousness), but what awaits you, my dear God-men, is a resurrection and a new You.

MONEY AND ABUNDANCE

Greetings to you, my dear and beloved souls. I am God the Father, one of the authors of your Universe. Today I'd like to discuss money and abundance - the subject that troubles everyone. Many of you are currently struggling, experiencing financial difficulties and getting upset because of this. "Why do those people who are so bogged down in this dense three-dimensional world and not willing to change, those who have sunk in darkness and not even seeking light, live so well? They have power and money, whilst us, those who have chosen the Light and strive for ascension, at times simply don't know what to do. As if we have been cut off from the celestial money flow, whilst all the proven ways of providing for ourselves and our families have stopped working. This leads us to despair. We are scared, we do not know what to do!" I hear these prayers all the time, but there is a reason for you experiencing financial difficulties. It's simple. You are in the wrong place, doing something that is not really desired by your spirit, your Higher self. Please understand, my dears, there is a place for every one of you in the beautiful orchestra of ascension. Only when each of you finds your place in life and starts doing what you created yourself for in the first place, no matter what, despite a lack of family and social understanding, despite your own fear which makes you think "this is stupid, this will not bring any money, I won't be able to provide for myself or the family" – only then will your ascension happen, which will subsequently be a part of the planetary ascension.

This is all true, my dear and beloved souls. The problem is that your three-dimensional society has lived under laws created by people for a long time, the people who are not aware of their inherent spirituality, although they are just as divine as you are, yet they have become mired in the third dimensionality so much that they only live to possess and to dominate at any cost – for them it is the only way of maintaining their high self-esteem as they have been cut off from their divine dignity. For a long time you have been a cell of the society that lives under laws established by those kind of people and you have been obeying these laws. For that you have been receiving a basic minimum, because you just could not act the way they did, as at heart you knew it would contradict the laws of the Universe. Having started your spiritual development journey, after a certain while you fell outside of the artificial social laws. God had to make sure the three-dimensional social laws didn't apply to you. God has freed you from this vicious circle so that you can no longer interact with the society in the same ways as before. The only way to lead you to your place in the orchestra of ascension was to cut you off from financial flows of the old world. Now the only way for you to secure material well-being is to start doing what you were born for, and you should be doing it today. Every one of you has a hobby, a favorite pastime, something that makes you happy. Something that makes you so engrossed that you forget the passage of time and would even do it for free, just for the sake of pleasure, moral satisfaction and enjoying the fruits of your labor – that particular activity will bring you happiness and material abundance. I am well aware that your critical mind will be persistent in making you think that it's stupid and impossible, that your talent is useless and will never be duly appreciated in the society. Yes, perhaps it won't be appreciated in your three-dimensional society, but to God your talent is extremely important and valuable: it is exactly because of your unique talent and a unique way of expressing it that the Earth and yourself will be able to ascend. You need to accept the fact that God has placed you outside of the three-dimensional social laws and they no longer apply to you. Therefore, the laws of receiving money that existed in the old three-dimensional society, no longer work for you either.

God teaches you to live under the new laws of the Universe, as those laws in particular will come into effect on the Earth after its ascension – and it is exactly them that are already having an impact on you and other people who have chosen to ascend. There are key tasks that need to be accomplished during the human identity destruction process: changing career, identifying your unique talent, finding your place in the orchestra of ascension, refusal to obey the old laws of making money and securing your well-being.

As much as you would like to do both things at the same time, i.e. make money under the old three-dimensional laws and, having discovered your unique talent, try and find your place in the orchestra of ascension – you wouldn't be able to do so, because as long as you continue to live under the old laws you don't let the new world energy flow into you, which is essential for uncovering your unique gift and finding your place in the ascension orchestra. As they say on the Earth, "you can't have your cake and eat it too." If you do not know how to do it, put your trust in God, and he will lead you to your calling. All you will have left to do will be to just believe him and start pursuing it.

Finding your place in the orchestra of ascension meditation

My dears, you should understand that it is very important to God that you do what you love, you are happy and have no need for anything – each of you has a unique gift, which is needed for both planetary and your personal ascension. It is in the work that you do with joy and passion whilst at the same time being rewarded appropriately for it, that you will discover a real God the Creator in yourself. It is an essential part of your personal ascension - to create in joy and receive abundance in return. This is your birthright. You are Creator Gods. God the Father has endowed each of you with a unique gift and a unique way of expressing it. All God's might and manifoldness is manifested in the talent of each of you. He has endowed every one of you with a part of himself, because you are his children. God manifests himself in each of your gifts – when you use your gift/talent, you are akin to your Father. Always remember this.

My dears, when each of you starts to create something using your unique gift, you take your unique place in the orchestra of ascension and begin to create the real Heaven on the Earth, ascending it (the Earth) into the fifth dimension. It is all in your hands, my dears.

Meditation

Find a quiet place where you can be alone, assume a comfortable position, turn all electrical appliances off and take a few deep breaths. Close your eyes and ask God the following: “Dear God, I can no longer live under the old laws and do what I did before. I can not make money the way I used to. Please help me discover my unique gift and the way of expressing it, lead me to the work of my life/my true calling in life, which will bring me joy and passion – the work of creating the Heaven on the Earth. Show me my place in the orchestra of ascension. I want to become a God-Man, a Creator like you. Help me, teach me, guide me in my work of creating the Heaven on the Earth.”

You will see how soon your life changes: God will lead you to the work of your life which is to create the Heaven on the Earth, and as soon as you begin it, the abundance will flow straight away into your life, and you will no longer have any need for anything. You have my word. Do it bravely, my dear and beloved souls, you will succeed.

I love you,
God the Father

FORGIVING YOURSELF/ ABOUT SELF-FORGIVENESS

Today I would like to talk to you about self-forgiveness. Your critical mind considers (Your critical mind makes you think that) some events currently happening in your life as your personal failure, your defeat, your fiasco. This is not the case. Believe me, what seems like a fall, is in fact an ascent. As I said earlier, your old world is collapsing, and the new laws that are already in place on the Earth, have not yet been mastered by you. You can't go back to how you used to live, but at the same time you haven't learnt the new ways of living either, hence it may seem like nothing is working out for you, you are not like everybody else, you are a failure. Some of you might even start blaming themselves for being incapable of managing their financial and life matters. Forgive yourselves for the fact that something is not working out - don't blame or judge yourselves. You are the pioneers, you are the ones who walk ahead of others in a dark cave, carrying a light. Yes, your near and dear souls follow in your footsteps and there is no one to lead or guide them in the darkness except you. Therefore, do not throw up your hands in despair if something goes wrong, do not blame yourselves for failures, but recognize the fact that you are the pioneers exploring the new laws of life, in order to tell others about them and teach them how to live by these laws. But firstly, you ought to learn how to use those laws to your own advantage, and how to get everything you need using these new laws and principles. Your followers need an example of how the new laws work and what you personally have achieved as a result. To do this/to set an example, you need to create a heaven in your life.

I know you find it hard at the moment and you just do not know what has to be done, what you need to do. This is why I want to tell you about the new laws that have already come into action in higher life and on the Earth.

The first thing you have to realize is that the law of karma or predetermination does no longer have power over you. You are now absolutely free and can create anything you want, any abundance you need, right now – all you need to do is to eliminate any barriers within yourself, such as your old beliefs, your old perception of the world and yourself in it, and, of course, to turn off your critical mind/critical thinking, which prevents you from believing that you are not just any human being who have no control over your destinies, but a Creator God.

The second law is the law of the unique gift. Its essence lies in the fact that you like something that gives you pleasure and makes you happy. You put love into it, whilst love is the essential universal energy needed to make your creations come to life, bringing you joy and happiness. It is the love that flows freely through you that will give you the best results. Common sense and logic tell you "Do this, and then you will find luck and success, and most importantly you will have money," and they are wrong, because if you don't want to do something, but do it anyway just because your critical mind says so, then nothing is going to work out as you will have no love for it in you, and will have to squeeze energy out of yourself to overcome the reluctance.

However, when you do something that you really want to do – something you enjoy, then the energy of love flows through you unlimitedly, hence the best vector for the creation of abundance in your life is to follow your passion.

Don't ask yourself 'how am I going to earn money by doing this' but simply create what you really want with love. Work towards the good of the people, give with love and at the same time realize that everything you do/create is energy, which will most definitely return to you.

The third law, which you need to comprehend is the law of permanence. It implies that everything flows and changes and when the time comes your passion may change. This means that you will have to either evolve yourself or God has already prepared new work of passion and a new place in the ascension orchestra for you. Which in turn signifies that you have either outgrown your passion and need to evolve further or you have successfully completed your task in the previous place, and God offers you a new job. Do not be afraid of change. If you feel that you want to do something different, do not be afraid: go forward bravely and do it.

The fourth law of creation is about the love for one's self as a creator and unconditional love for your creations. The essence of this law lies in the fact that one needs to love oneself unconditionally, and must under no circumstances create any obstructions for themselves, such as "When I create this and that, I will love myself, but until it's done I can not love myself." This is a wrong approach, my dears. Please understand, that denying yourself love, or loving yourself under certain conditions only, blocks the stream of love energy flowing through you and deprives you of an opportunity to create effectively. God does not evaluate his creations, he just loves them unconditionally. You are now Creator God-men, therefore you must all have all the qualities of God. Love yourself the way you are, discard judgements of your critical and stipulating mind about yourself. Love has no conditions, everything you see is made of love, even you are. Therefore, if you suddenly find yourself in a state of disharmony due to your critical mind's influence on you, don't start creating but return to self-love first. In order to do so, find a place where you can be alone and no one can disturb you, assume a comfortable position and relax. Imagine yourself as a golden angel and start feeling love for yourself. Tell yourself 'I love you,' keep telling this until you feel loved and feel love flowing through you nice and easy, whilst your critical mind stays silent, without creating any obstacles or conditions. Once you achieve that, you can start creating.

The fifth law of creation is the law of free attraction. Its essence lies in the fact that like attracts like and you attract all things that are similar to you. It's simple: if you abide by the first four laws, then you are a Creator God capable of creating anything you want without too much effort. If you have not completely mastered the laws, have not let them pass through you, they have not become a part of your being, you doubt and evaluate them through the use of critical thinking, then you will not succeed - you will only end up attracting this exact contradiction into your life. That is why, in order to avoid such manifestations in one's life, one must apply those laws in a certain way on an energy level.

Meditation

The following meditation exercise allows you to accept, understand and start using the laws of creation more effectively.

You are inherently made of pure energy of love, which is endowed with consciousness. If your self-awareness is based on how your critical mind perceives you, then you as energy exist under laws, which your critical mind believes in. By eliminating it (the critical mind) from your pathway, you merge with the divine consciousness. The divine laws start to have an effect on you and you as energy begin to manifest yourself accordingly.

Sit comfortably, relax, close your eyes and breathe deeply. Try to completely switch off your mind, create an emptiness inside yourselves – get into the state of thoughtlessness. Then imagine how the divine consciousness flows in, through the seventh chakra located at the top of the head, filling all your body, as if you were an empty vessel. It looks like a thick, golden, glowing liquid. Once you are filled with it and become golden yourself, call on the five laws of creation in the form of different colour energies, which will then enter your body. As the energy comes in, think about the law, feel it, become aware of how it becomes a part of you and starts to come into action in your life right now.

THE BEST WAY TO USE YOUR TALENT

Greetings my dear and beloved souls!

Today we will talk about the best way to use your abilities for the good of the people and the planet in order for you and the planet to ascend into the fifth dimension in the most optimal way and as soon as possible. Loving-kindness or divine grace is the key. Your divine gift, your unique talent, your abilities – something you would love to do at any time without any prearrangements, is your Grace/ blessing. It is closely linked with the concept of giving, which means to give what you can and what's always with you - your divine gift, to people gratuitously, with all your heart. You will wonder "How am I going to live if I only give?" The answer is in the knowing of the laws of the universe - if you give something with a sense of loss, thinking that you lose (it) forever, that will be the case indeed, but if you give something with love and sincerity, knowing that for all the energy that you give away there will be a hundredfold return, then so it will be and can not be otherwise.

The more you share your gift with people, the greater the reward awaiting you. Enjoy the fact that you are using your divine gift, immerse yourself in your job and give with ease and effortlessness, with a cunning look in the eyes, as people around you will not understand your motives straight away, but you know that that's the way to create the Heaven on the Earth, your abundance and at the same time to help build the Heaven on the Earth.

Money as an equivalent of energy.

Money is just an equivalent of energy. From everything mentioned above, you understand how one should use their abilities for the good of the people, the planet and of course the beloved self. In your world, money is a very powerful, creative force, because it is a universal energy substitute. Therefore, if you need money in particular, then when you share your gift with people easily and effortlessly, you specifically ask for (or, in other words, create) the energy of money. You are Creator Gods and you can convert any energy into any other kind of energy. So, when you use your talent to give something to people, convert the returning energy precisely into money. And that's it!!! That way you will love and enjoy your work, at the same time acknowledging that you help building the Heaven on the Earth. You will also take great pleasure in receiving your energy back in the form of money. That is the most effective key to abundance and prosperity - the key to your Heaven.

THE POWER OF YOUR SOUL

Today I'd like to talk about the soul, its strengths and how one can use it. The energy of God residing in your body is in fact your soul. It is also located outside of the body on other levels of density. In order to take action in the dimension where your consciousness is, you need to use the energy of the soul contained in the physical body as it is the fastest way to manifest anything. Your soul, as a particle of God, has enough power to perform any miracles in your dense world. Learning to use the power of the soul is not easy, but you have the ability to do it. The most important thing is to clear your consciousness of any errors of judgment, free it from fears and other manifestations of your critical mind. You can reach out to the powers of your soul. Its center is located in the chest – its infinite power is in there. Your will won't be of any help here - the power of the soul can't be subdued to one's will. Only total relaxation and being in a state of love can unleash the power of your soul, and then you will be able to do anything in the world - absolutely everything !!!

Your soul is an inexhaustible creative source of energy. Its strength is so great that it is capable of changing the world (of turning the world upside down).

CREATOR CONSCIENCE

Today, my dear and beloved souls, we will talk about the conscience of the Creator. This notion is radically different from your understanding of conscience as human beings, after all the human concept of conscience is quite a limiting concept of right and wrong, good and bad, whilst the conscience of the Creator is a divine notion completely unrelated to your interpretation of conscience. The Conscience of the Creator is a universal concept, which states that everyone should do their creative work, what they love to do, of their own free will. Yes, that's right, there is free will in your levels of reality, therefore you as creators possessing certain gifts, must use it according to the laws of free will. What does this mean? Let's say you see a third density human being. As an enlightened Creator who has the knowledge of the truth, you see that they are moving away from the Light and you want to help them with all your heart. What happens next is that you, as someone to whom their gift has already been revealed, try and guide them towards the Light, using your power to manifest anything you want. What happens as a result is that you are robbing this soul of its natural ability to get to know itself as God, after all a soul needs to become aware of its true self, find its own path and make its own free choices, otherwise it won't be able to feel free and strong, knowing that it has the power to change everything.

The conscience of the Creator lies in the fact that one must let another person make their own free choice, give them an opportunity to believe in themselves and gain strength, instead of pulling them out of a difficult situation using the divine power, thus depriving the soul of an opportunity to do it itself.

With your level of self-awareness, you have to understand this and always remember about the conscience of the Creator. After all, when you use your gift to help someone, you deprive them of a chance to solve the problem themselves. They will have to face the same problem again and again until they learn to recognize signs from their spirit, realize their divinity, their power, and start using it.

As you can see, such seemingly "good", according to your human notions of good and bad, help will only prolong the educational process of the soul. One should not assume that some souls are stronger or weaker than others: believe me, all souls are capable of coping with their life experiences. Each soul has a pre-planned way of realizing the divine nature of its own being - it is only a matter of choice.

All you have to do as Creators is to impart knowledge and provide exemplifications, to show and tell, but only those people who wish to listen to you. Don't waste your energy trying in vain to convince people that you are right, it is of no use. You can't prove to anyone that they are God logically because logic is the prerogative of the three-dimensional critical consciousness, which is unable to perceive itself as God. There are other human attributes that can help do this. Faith is an instrument completely separate from logic that can help an individual realize their divinity, in the same way as the heart can get you on the right path. If the information you give reaches one's heart and resonates with their faith, then that person will follow you, but if they are closed, it means their time has not come yet, so don't make an effort, don't waste your energy.

Be aware of the fact that you have no responsibility for not saving everyone you wanted to save. You were the first to walk through complete and frightening darkness of your own will with a torch in your hands, because you had faith, because your heart told you so, despite facing constant intimidation and manipulation of your critical mind. Those who followed in your footsteps believed in you and your words, however no one can make choices for those people who have decided to stay but them – nevertheless they are still loved by yourself and by God. This is exactly what the conscience of the Creator is about. Knowing this key tenet is extremely important when you do your very much needed and wonderful work, my dear and beloved soul. That is all for today.

I believe in you and love you.
God the Father.

ALL OF YOU ARE GREAT MASTERS!!!

Hello, my dear, beloved souls. I am God the Father, one of the authors of this Universe, or to be precise, its Central Sun – I am that thought that begot all things in your Universe nine billion years ago according to your chronology, and continue to beget now. Messages that I have been sending are essential to people who have chosen to ascend – those fearless souls who have decided to venture on the wonderful journey in a ship called “Ascension.” You, my dear and beloved souls, have been vibrating at a frequency higher than the 4th one for a long time, i.e. you are now in the 4th density of the Universe. Each of you has come to a realization of your spiritual nature and have no doubts about it. Your view of the world has changed a long time ago in comparison to the people of the 3rd density, who continue to perceive themselves as animals endowed with consciousness and emotions, denying their divine origin and their personal ability to control the matter and energy from which they were created. The time has come for you to find out the whole truth about yourselves and your role in this wonderful event that's taking place on the Earth now. At the moment you find it very difficult to watch the three-dimensional world and the people suspended in this density. It is even harder to live in this world and the society that still lives under the laws of the three-dimensional world. I don't intend to go into details describing what is happening in your world now as you already know all this.

I want to tell you what needs to be done and how to find your gift in order to take your place in the ascension orchestra. All of you already know from various spiritual sources about the concept of a unique gift and a unique way of expressing it, which you planned yourself before your birth. Many of you have started looking for that gift, your unique talent, but despite looking all your life, you have still not found it - your unique calling that would bring you joy and passion. This has led many of you to despair. "How is it possible, - you say to me. - There is nothing I like, not a single human occupation, not a single job! All my life I have been doing something for the sake of making a living."

I understand you, my dears. The fact of the matter is that you are very old souls who came to this three-dimensional world with one single purpose, which is to help humanity in this transition period when everyone's work and help is so important for the ascension of our beloved Earth. You may find it hard to believe how significant and majestic your role is. You are the prophets of the Creator. You are the ones whose unique gift is in becoming a spiritual teacher for those who wish to follow you. Your role in life is to be the pioneer who discovers the way and leads others. You don't need to produce, create or earn a living working somewhere. God will give you all you need as soon as you start accomplishing what you came to this earth for - when you finally become who you really are, recognize the fact that you are the prophets and teachers and lead others. You may find it hard to believe, but your role in life is to become like Jesus Christ, Buddha and other Ascended Masters in your history. Yes, that's exactly how you should think about your purpose in life and accept a certain divine part of yourself, as did Jesus accept the Spirit of Christ and began to serve all people. You will also have to go through a 40-day identity destruction period or to be more precise, the dissolution of your human identity in the consciousness of God. You already know this as Christ's temptation, when Jesus spent 40 days in the desert and was tempted by the Devil. In a similar way, your critical mind will be resisting, coming up with various conclusions and proofs that you aren't God but just a man. However, the spirit of Christ whom you will call on for help, will provide all the necessary support, and you will conquer your human personality, although such words as 'to conquer' or 'to be victorious' aren't quite appropriate here. I would rather say, you will dissolve your human identity in your divine love and in God's consciousness, which by then will have become accessible to you. Immediately, your self-evaluation criteria will change: you will perceive yourself as a divine being of Light, as a spirit of Christ, but not as a man - a social being aiming for various statuses/characteristics in the society (power, wealth, recognition, importance, success, etc.). You will find your divine dignity, and God will give you all you need on the Earth. (You do realize that God is you, or rather you are a part of God, endowed with all his qualities and possessing all his power – it's only a question of realizing this).

As soon as you become aware of what your unique gift is, as soon as you accept the idea that you have come here to help others realize their divinity, as soon as you become aware of your ability to accept the spirit of Christ in you and become more like your Father, Jesus, Buddha and other Ascended Masters from your Earth. You will also go through the period of the identity destruction process and a period of assimilation with the divine consciousness, and will finally be able to determine what your inner joy and passion are and start sharing the energy through the unique gift, which will then start coming back to you in the form of all kind of material things necessary for your life on the Earth. You must understand that your financial difficulties and health, which may seem to have gotten worse recently, serve as a means of activating you and you planned this yourself before coming here.

My dears, please realize at last the fact that none of the old ways of earning a living or making yourselves feel better, no medication, no action stemming from your beliefs and old laws that is aimed at making a living, will bring the desired result. You will be disappointed time after time until you fall into despair. God loves you very much and does not want you to suffer or become ill, but you get caught up in the third-dimensionality so much that for you to hear me you need a motivation factor bordering on the edge of physical survival. You have planned this yourselves because you have been through third dimensional experiences many a time and know how difficult it is to wake up and break free from the shackles of the three-dimensionality. That is exactly why you have planned certain motives and situations for yourselves which are impossible to resolve based on the knowledge of the three dimensional world or beliefs of third density humans. You are like illegal alien-(foreign) spies who live in a foreign country awaiting a prearranged signal from the centre for you to begin work according to a prearranged plan. My dears, the start signal was given a long time ago, it is time to remember what the plan was and start taking action.

The message that I convey through this channel, is aimed specifically at helping you realize your magnificent and unique role in the grand Ascension spectacle. You must wake up, call on the divine part of your self, let the spirit of Christ in, go through the human identity destruction process and start taking action: teach people, lead them, discover their talents and put them in the right places, which they have predetermined themselves before coming here. All the variety of the Creator's resources is manifested in every person living today. It is divided into fragments as one or a few unique talents in every person, as well as unique ways of expressing those talents. After your awakening, your task is to help others wake up too and teach them new laws of being that are congruent with the fourth density Earth. Each person who follows you and discovers their gift, will start sharing it with people for the good of humanity, using the laws that you teach them and will start building a beautiful world, into which the Earth will be transformed. As soon as you wake people up, put them in the right places and teach them to create by using their unique gifts, God will begin to manifest himself on the Earth in all his greatness and power. People will start to live by the laws of the Universe, as opposed to living by man-made laws, created by human beings consumed by three-dimensionality.

And now there is a little practice for those who have decided to accept their true (intended) purpose and the spirit of Christ.

Find a place where you can be alone and get into a comfortable position, relax, close your eyes, breathe deeply a little, and ask God to activate you as his prophet, as a spiritual teacher for other people. Then call on the spirit of Christ and give him a permission to enter you, and start taking action through you for the purpose of serving others and for the good of the entire planet's ascension. Ask for all your unique talents and abilities necessary for you in particular, which you have prepared/planned for yourself before your arrival on the Earth, to be revealed to you. Ask God to help you find the unique way of expressing your talent, and teach you how to use it best for yourself and other people. Then spend a little bit of time in a state of calmness and thoughtlessness. You will feel how the energy comes into you, you may also see images and words. All of you will receive a package of energy and knowledge required for expressing your talent. This package will start opening very quickly. You will see how futile all your past actions aimed at supporting yourself were. You will identify your true path in life, find your divine dignity and a place (in life) that is rightly yours. However, your human self will be resisting the change for up to 40 days. Be ready and remember who you really are. In forty days your human identity will dissolve in your divine love, and you will reach your full potential and be able to expand the capacity of your work to its maximum, with all the strengths and qualities of a real Creator, a spiritual teacher, and an embodiment of God on the Earth. And once that happens, your life will change forever: you will get your life's work, which will bring out your inner joy and passion, all kind of material things, which you need for life on the Earth and which you need to feel truly happy, you will get good health, which you have wanted to have for so long, and will start doing such needed and hard, but also such sacred work, which only you can do, for you yourself are God.

So be it, my dear and beloved souls!

JESUS' 40 DAYS IN THE DESERT

Hello my dear and beloved souls. I am God the Father, one of the authors of this Universe. Today I want to talk to you about how to survive the 40-day human identity destruction period if you have after all chosen to accept the spirit of Christ and let him into yourself. The first thing you should know is that certain forces on your planet and beyond it do not want this, because every newly unshackled teacher is an example of freedom and God'd power on the Earth and an exemplar to all people. Hence the forces that want to own and dominate you within your human society and beyond it, really don't want let anyone out of the illusion, in which all of you currently live. Their aim is to have complete mastery over you.

Unfortunately, there are many entities in the Universe whose experience of soul evolution has started in the third dimension and they have not been able to break away from it. Having said this, their technology is at the highest level. Also, there are entities who live in higher densities of the manifested world and have superpowers in comparison to third density people, but who have been unable to dissolve their egos in the consciousness and love of God. For that reason those beings try and manipulate you in order to subjugate you to their desire to possess and dominate. That is why a release of just one person from that slavery will to some extent lessen their power. Yet their worst fear is when someone whose calling is to be a spiritual teacher, who can lead others and is an ideal example of a man who has overcome their ego and all their fears, who has accepted all parts of themselves, and who has dissolved their third density human identity in the love and consciousness of God, breaks free.

The forces mentioned above will do everything in their power to stop or at least to slow down the process of your evolution and assimilation with the spirit of Christ. They will intimidate and try and persuade you in every way possible. They will appeal to your human conscience, your feelings and emotions, your old beliefs about your duty, your sense of (illusory) responsibility for someone or even your guilt, in order not to, under any circumstances, let you go. But the spirit of Christ will be growing stronger and stronger in you day by day, and you will be realizing that all the "right", as it seems at first, human actions expected from you by somebody else or dictated to you by your human conscience, are in fact intended to stop you and to deprive you of the chance to get rid of the shackles of your human consciousness. When you become strong and know it too, you can be easily drawn into a battle between, as you would think, the forces of Light and darkness. By appealing to your conscience again, you may be asked to protect somebody, and you as a Light worker, will rush to help people and protect the weak and deprived, fighting with the forces that oppose you, which you perceive as dark forces.

My beloved, darkness can not be defeated by force or authority. Any struggle, even if it's for a just cause, drags your consciousness back into the confines of the three-dimensionality and does not let you break free from its chains. The only way to conquer darkness is to free your consciousness, realize your divine origin and stop any fighting with other souls. Those souls, whether they are people or entities, live an illusion of the third dimension, and even if their role is to behave negatively towards you, they are as divine as you are and God loves both you and them equally. They come from the same origin as you, but they are behind you on the evolutionary path. One must learn to love all divine creations if they are to become God, which requires true wisdom of the Creator.

My beloved souls, I am asking you not to fall for various tricks of your ego or succumb to negative forces in the society and beyond it. Call on the wisdom of the Creator, ask the spirit of Christ to help you distinguish truth from illusion and to unfold your divine awareness and understanding of the events that start happening in your life, and the spirit of Christ will help you make sense of everything and not to be deceived by neither your ego nor negative forces.

The most difficult challenge may be the one when your ego appeals to the affection that you have for your friends, loved ones and family, and attempts to evoke a sense of responsibility for their lives and fates, or even a sense of guilt. I want to remind you to follow the "conscience of the Creator" in everything you do. All souls are equally strong and possess the qualities of God. Remember that even the weakest, both physically and mentally, person is capable of anything – all they need to do is to realize their divine origin. Remember that each person is only responsible for their own destiny and their own choice, for everyone has free will, therefore everybody can change their life and gain their freedom, just like you. Your spirit stands near you and tries to reach your heart. It is not your fault that some of you hear it and some of you don't. Try seeing things not from a human's point of view, but from God's perspective. Don't use the social criteria for judging yourself - they are fallacious. Evaluate yourself from the perspective of the Creator who possesses the Divine Dignity. That's the only way for you to win at this critical time and break the shackles of the three-dimensional world, find your freedom and power, as well as the divine wisdom, without which you can not become a spiritual teacher.

I also want to warn you that as soon as you call on the spirit of Christ, you will encounter parts of yourself that you really don't like. Lust, bad habits, desire for self-destruction, greed, fear, anger, cruelty, and other manifestations of your ego will emerge on the surface of your consciousness. Do not be afraid of this, and you should by no means dismiss them. Feel every emerging emotion, let your thoughts flow freely, don't expel them. Please understand, my dears, you picked all the parts of yourself before your birth, without them it would be impossible to explore the creation of God. You had to learn and experience everything. Your task in this period of time is to collect all parts of yourself, accepts everything you don't like and realize that these aspects of yourselves have been specifically created by God for your exploration of the third dimension, and they by no means belittle your divinity or your divine dignity. You have to stop feeling ashamed of or embarrassed about your thoughts and feelings: they are a part of you and a part of God for He is all there is. You have to dissolve all those feelings and thoughts, all parts of yourself in the consciousness and love of God. You should not reject the negative parts of yourself, as they are as divine as your positive qualities. You can only achieve the consciousness of the Creator if you stop evaluating yourself as good or bad, right or wrong and stop seeing yourself in black and white.

For God, there is nothing good or bad - he loves everything that he hath made. In the same way you will have to love yourself completely, and dissolve yourself in the divine love and wisdom. Your negative qualities, as well as the good ones, are also worthy of God's love. Your ego can not be destroyed or defeated. You need to accept it, stop fighting with it and dissolve it in the divine wisdom and love – that's the only way to become truly free from your vices, from what you don't like in yourself, from your ego and all its manifestations, and to finally become the embodiment of the spirit of Christ on the Earth and to accomplish your mission, which is to be a spiritual teacher, help people break free from the shackles of the three-dimensional world, get rid of illusions and follow you to the Heaven on the Earth.

I would like to mention another important problem which you will have to face in the 40-day human identity destruction period - your physical health. It may seem to you that it gets significantly worse. I am asking you, my dears, not to panic. As the spirit of Christ starts to enter your body, he will begin to change not only your consciousness, but your physical body too, which may cause fatigue, various pains and exacerbation of chronic diseases. Please understand that this is a prerequisite for obtaining an immortal physical body that is insusceptible to disease or ageing - a body capable of encompassing the spirit of Christ with his vast divine might and indescribable power. Yes, you heard this right: after the assimilation process is complete, you will get divine powers, which you will require in your difficult, but very much needed and truly sacred work. The restructuring of your physical body is essential for accepting the spirit of Christ and receiving your divine powers.

When the assimilation process is over, you will gain health, strength, the consciousness of the Creator, his love for all things, and will be able to become an unshackled/freed teacher for other people, their guide into a new, beautiful world, which they will build on the Earth themselves. It will be extremely hard, even impossible, for them to do it without you - they really need your help. Nobody else is as ready as you are to overcome the fear, to dissolve your human identity in the consciousness and love of God and be the first to become a great teacher like Buddha, Christ and other ascended masters of your Earth.

So be it!

THE SPIRIT OF CHRIST

Hello, dear readers.

Today a different spiritual entity will be talking to you. Such a decision has been made as you need more detailed and completely prejudice-less understanding of what the spirit of Christ and a Christ-like entity are. The Spirit of Christ himself or a Christ-like entity will be talking to you today in order to explain what it is, and what kind of reasons and objectives have prompted it to take action in the material world now.

Hello my dear souls. My name is Sinira. I am a Christ-like entity or the spirit of Christ. I am a spiritual being located in the eighth density of the Universe, or, to be more precise, vibrating at the eighth dimensional level. I am a mother and a father to individual souls of the seventh density, your individual souls, whom you call golden angels. My consciousness of Christ is the collective consciousness of all golden angels of your Higher Selves. To clarify your understanding of what the spirit of Christ or the second coming of Christ is, as told in your religious books, I'd like to tell that to go through an experience in a human or humanoid body, all golden angels of the seventh density of the Universe created by me densify their vibrations to lower frequencies of the Universe. As you probably already know, one individual soul of the seventh density or, as you would say, one golden angel, can simultaneously appear(manifest) in 12 human forms of the third-dimension in order to explore the outer worlds created by the Great Central Sun of the Universe. After a complete and thorough investigation of those worlds - you call it the wheel of reincarnation - golden angels re-collect all their fragments going through the process of life in human and humanoid forms, and return into the Christ-like entity that created them in the first place, in order to share their accumulated experience.

During the collective ascension of your planet, very much depends on human free will and a substantial amount of clear, objective information about the structure of the Universe, the role of man in it, and what the truth and the illusions of the three-dimensional reality are. Having gone through many experiences in three-dimensional worlds, we understand perfectly well how hard it is to overcome judgments and beliefs of the three-dimensional world, and break free from the shackles of your human identity. That is why many Christ-like entities like myself, have decided to compress and condense to such a degree that we can enter the third-density of existence and come to the Earth in human bodies to teach and guide you, because we love you and have a deep desire to help you.

The second coming of Christ means that the spirit of Christ, or rather a part of the consciousness of Christ-like entities, will incarnate on the planet Earth as humans to become spiritual teachers for people. There is information in your Christian Bible, describing the life of one of your teachers named Jesus, that when Jesus' consciousness was ready, he was baptized in the Jordan River and the spirit of Christ entered his body. This means that there was a Christ-like entity of the eighth density in the physical body of Christ from the moment of his birth. As he grew spiritually, there came a moment when both his body and mind became ready to accept all the might and consciousness of the Christ-like entity and that is exactly what happened at his baptism.

The Bible also describes a 40-day period, which Jesus spent in the desert, where the devil tempted him. This is just a metaphor, a figurative description of the process of dissolution of Jesus's human identity in the identity of Christ, which resulted in him completely breaking free from the chains of duality and his ego. Also, he freed himself from all kind of human perceptions of reality and started perceiving the world from God's point of view. Once this process was complete and the consciousness of Jesus merged with the spirit of Christ, he found all the strength and knowledge needed to carry out his mission. Or rather, he realized who he really was and what he came to the Earth in his human body for.

At that time a coming of just one Christ-like entity was enough for the creation of a teaching that now days has around two billion followers. Of course his teaching has since been corrupted by forces that want to control and dominate people in an attempt to serve their own selfish ends, but nevertheless the teaching of Jesus still has a kernel of truth and each open hearted person longing for spiritual growth will be able to see the truth and separate the wheat from the chaff.

For the ascension of all humanity and the entire planet, there must be many more spiritual teachers than just one. That is why the second coming of Christ will present many more Christ-like entities coming to the Earth in human form. They won't look like Jesus, there will be both males and females, and they will live a human life until they remember why exactly they came to the Earth at this beautiful transition time and what their role is. Once they know, they will call on the spirit of Christ, each in their own time, depending on how ready their consciousness is to accept the fact that they are in fact messiahs, spiritual teachers comparable to Jesus, Buddha and other ascended masters from the past, and this, believe me, is not an easy task for someone who has lived in the three-dimensional world for some time. Every one of them will be bringing Enlightenment to their specific regions on the planet to a certain circle of souls who can hear them and believe in the fact that they themselves are a divine manifestation and that their main role is to explore the outer worlds created by their Father, or, to be precise, created by themselves in the state of being God, because God is all there is.

I want to tell you that Christ-like entities have incarnated on the Earth many times as various spiritual teachers from the past, and precisely because the entity incarnated in Jesus could be determined, he was named Jesus Christ in your holy book.

That is why if, during your spiritual journey, you come across different spiritual teachers who call themselves Christ in their second coming, you should know that it could be true. Here is an advice on how to spot a false prophet, whose goal is to enslave and control your consciousness for selfish purposes. Don't try to understand what they say with your mind, listen with your heart - if you feel that your heart can't accept everything this spiritual teacher tells you and you feel discomfort communicating with them, then don't take everything they say at face value. God has given you a unique instrument for discerning truth, which is your heart - always use it whilst accepting or rejecting any spiritual truths. And if your logic makes you criticize such a prophet and tells you that them coming here to help you ascend is impossible and fictitious, but at the same time their words make your heart beat faster, eyes (and soul) shed tears and you can feel your spiritual home, the love of God and how the energy of God enfolds you, then you should know that it is indeed one of those people who will help you transfer to the new Earth, if you wish to do so.

I want you to understand that no one can make your soul evolve but you - no saviour or messiah will take your hand and walk you into the kingdom of heaven – only you can do this and therein lies God's wise plan, and you are a part of it.

If you are reading these lines now, it is quite possible that you are one of those spiritual teachers of mankind, one of the incarnations of Christ. In order to understand if that is true, you need to ask your soul whether your unique gift is to be a spiritual teacher for humanity or not. If you hear a positive response you will need to be “baptized” as follows: call on the spirit of Christ, start accomplishing your mission and believe that this time you have nothing to fear. You will not have to die on a cross. All you need to do is to set an example for other people by breaking free from the shackles of your ego and the illusions of the three-dimensional world, and becoming a happy and healthy person, who lives in abundance, doesn't age or get ill, and is full of divine unconditional love for all mankind.

And most importantly, my dears, do not be afraid of anything, you will have everything you need to implement your mission. Believe in success and don't forget about free will. Teach only those people who hear you, don't waste your energy, you will need it a lot in your hard but very much needed work. I send you my love and light.

THE LOVE OF THE CREATOR

Hello, my dear and beloved souls. I am God the Father, one of the creators of your Universe. Today I would like to talk to you about love. What is the love of the Creator? What are the fundamental differences between the love of the creator and other kinds of love known to you? I will try to explain it as simply as possible and so far as possible based on the vocabulary of my partner, whose mind I use to translate thought packets and energies that I want to convey to you to text.

So, let's talk about love that you know. You love your partner – this is love. And when he comes home late drunk, do you still love him? You love your cat, but when it uses your favourite shoes as toilet, do you still love it? You love your friends. But what about when you are cruelly betrayed by them? This list can go on forever. By giving you these examples, I want to say that in your reality you are used to dividing love into different types, ascribing different characteristics to it, but as has been mentioned above, the main characteristic of love is its complete unconditionality- it is something warm, tender and wonderful that you keep feeling for humans, animals, your work, everything and anything, no matter what, even if someone or something you feel love for causes you pain.

In your Christian Bible there is the following quote: "Love your enemies, bless those that curse you." What does this mean and how should you understand/interpret this? It's simple: you are quickly reaching a true understanding of the world, because your consciousness steadily draws near the consciousness of the Creator and you finally begin to see the world through the eyes of God – through your real eyes, my dears. In order to completely destroy your human judgements and dissolve your identity in the consciousness of Christ, you need to learn to love all that surrounds you, just as God does.

God loves all his creations equally regardless of what they do or how they are perceived by humans. They may be involved in wrong doings or be ugly, but God loves his creations without conditions. His love is infinite, it is the most powerful energy in the Universe and it is that energy that God consists of - he totally and completely consists of Love, just like you, my dears. You should realize that everything around you is in fact God, and He is ALL there is: the bad, the good, the beautiful and the ugly. He is (in) all the events that happen to you. He is (in) all the things and objects that surround you. He is (in) all the people who are close to you. He is (in) all your favorite relatives and friends, but he is also (in) all those people who have hurt you. He is (in) all your enemies. He is (in) all the bad things that have happened to you. He is (in) all the pain you have experienced. And in spite of all of this, HE IS LOVE.

Just try to understand that the only way for you to break free from the shackles of the three-dimensional world is to realize that God's love for you is in everything that surrounds you - absolutely everything. "How so? - you will ask. - That can't be true! How can God allow certain events that happen to us, how can he watch our sufferings, what kind of love is it if we can barely make ends meet, when we are hurt and scared? Where is love in all of this? " And I reply, my dears, " You are my children, the children of God, and therefore you are also Gods. You can't imagine how mighty and majestic you are. You shine through the entire Universe. You can't even believe how holy and beautiful you really are. There is so much strength, love and compassion in you, that even when you are caught in the darkness of your three dimensional world, being separated from my grace and your own divine consciousness, you and only you, my beloved children, can see the light in the darkness. Only you, my children, can overcome this obstacle through the power of your divine love and start loving all that surrounds you and forgive all your enemies, after recognizing the fact that your enemies are also the children of God, the same as you are, and they only play their roles to make you wake up from the sleep of the third-dimensionality and realize your divinity.

The only way to become God is to learn to love all your creations unconditionally. My children, please realize that everything that surrounds you has been created by you. Your body, your work, your home, life events, your partners and parents - everything and everybody that has surrounded you in the past and surrounds you now - these are all your own creations, my children. You should love all of them as your own creations and accept the full responsibility for them. Please understand that they just helped you on your journey to becoming aware that you are God. They helped you by pointing out what wasn't right in your consciousness - perhaps you had to accept something you had been negating in yourself and clear out false judgements regarding yourself and the world in which you live. Everything you don't like is only there for you to finally find your true Self and realize that you are Creators.

As soon as you come to love your creations for their deep significance, as soon as you understand what the plan of the Creator who begot them is, as soon as you see beauty in everything that happens, you will suddenly realize that you have always been surrounded by my love, and everything that has happened to you before and everything that is happening to you now is in the name of my enormous, unconditional and pure love for you, my children. Only God can forgive anything and everything because his love is unconditional. So will you forgive everyone, including yourselves, for you are Gods. Only God can overcome any bitterness, any fear, any despair. Only God can see light where there is darkness. Only God, whilst seeing all the imperfections of your world, can do good and hope that you will change the world. Every day you do all of these things. You do good, despite all the evil things you have been through. You forgive something that is simply impossible to forgive. You don't give up hope, even when there is no hope. You move forward despite falling down a hundred times. You love, no matter what. You do it every day. You are Gods. Know it, realize it, and finally accept it. Be proud of yourselves, love yourselves, honour yourselves as you honour me, since You are I. You are the most beautiful creation of mine, please know this and always remember of my love for you.

Once again, look back over your life carefully, pause to think about the most poignant fragments, which require your attention, behold love where you did not see it before, behold the beauty of the events that brought you to me, recognize my love in everything that has been happening to you and in everything that you have been doing. Release fear, guilt, hatred and any feelings of lack and worthlessness - let them go with the help of love, the unconditional and divine love. Love can change anything and can dissolve everything - any negativity there is. It can conquer any obstacle. My children, I love you and wait for you to verily blossom like a beautiful flower, and that time is coming very soon.

I express my enormous love for you.

God the Father

THE ESSENTIAL ATTRIBUTES OF ASCENSION

Hello my dear and beloved souls.

I am God the Father. I am the one who created your Universe. Today I would like to talk to you about a very important event that will happen to every one of you at the moment of your transition from the third to the fourth density, and then from the fourth density layer of existence to the fifth. I'm talking about your ascension and certain essential attributes that will accompany it. There is a number of crucial processes you must go through before you can acquire those attributes without difficulty and ascend in the best possible way for you in your personal journey. I'd like to devote our today's conversation specifically to those key processes so that you can go through them smoothly and easily, and, most importantly, in time.

Here is more details, my dears. What kind of processes am I talking about? First and foremost, your decision to ascend must be of your own free will. What does this mean? First of all, when people hear about ascension, many of them wish it happens to them only because they have found out that they would become immortal, stop getting sick and the problem of poverty would be permanently solved for them – a rather rosy perspective, isn't it? But to many third-dimensional people's disappointment, this is not quite the case. Third-dimensional people are not aware of their spiritual nature and their thinking is something along the following lines: "That's great, I can do what I want, I will have everything I want, and I will live forever! How wonderful!" Put simply, their desire to ascend stems from their urge to satisfy the ego. Please understand that you can't ascend if your motivation for ascension is to gratify the desires of the ego. It is simply impossible!

In order to ascend, you need to completely destroy your human, third-dimensional perception of the world, which will lead to a complete re-evaluation of your desires and aspirations. That is why one fine day you may notice that despite all your eagerness to understand spiritual truths, which you learn from various sources currently available on your planet, and all your efforts to take action and apply practices from those various information sources, nothing works out. I am asking you not to worry, it only happens because you are trying to understand God using your human mind and measure the desired result against the desires of your ego. And then all of a sudden something aimed at changing your whole life happens. This could be a serious illness or a difficult life event, which may really frighten you or bring you to despair.

My dears, all of this comes from the fact that the spirit wants you to re-evaluate all your values and motivations. What does this mean? When you first heard about ascension, perhaps, you, as a typical human being, decided to ascend to satisfy the desires of your ego. But now, after going through certain difficulties and becoming aware of your divine nature, you need to re-evaluate your life. Once you do that, the reasons why you want to ascend will also change. The ordeal that has come on to you seems insurmountable to you, but it doesn't require a great effort of will, strength or your energy at all. It may seem insurmountable for a man, but your spirit will easily resolve it. In order for this to happen, all you need to do is to identify yourself with the Spirit. Relax, stop fighting with life, believe that you are the spirit and that in your life the spirit can fulfill any of its promise and provide you with anything. If you follow the path of your spirit. All you need to do is to believe in it. In order to do this, you need to identify that part of your human self that doesn't believe in such a possibility, and can't accept an easy and joyful way of solving the problem. Remember that this part of you has also been created by you and it needs your divine love just as yourself. Listen to its opinion about this issue, let it tell you everything it feels, thinks, and what it considers necessary to do. Then tell it that you love it and you will see how a white light sphere expands out from your chest in all directions and your other human self dissolves into this white light and becomes a part of you.

Your human identity needs to be dissolved in your divine love. Only in this way will the ego cease to create obstructions for you by constantly reminding that you are a human, not a spirit. There is no need to fight with it or try and persuade it. You must not deny its existence. What you should do is to accept and love it, and dissolve it in your infinite (the way it naturally is) divine love. After that, relax and ask the spirit to help you solve the problem in the best possible way. Trust the spirit, pause for a moment, stop fighting, trying to resolve the situation in the old human ways. That's not a sign of weakness at all. On the contrary, it is a sign of great courage, because it is far from easy to believe in your divinity when you live in the material world. One needs great courage to do things not as a person but as a spirit. And believe me, you have it. I know it.

If your problem is related to the fact that you are now in a situation where you feel left out of the society, have lost your job and can't solve your financial problems in the old ways (whereas before, you would just find a new job you did not like, borrow money and so on), then you should know that the time has come for you to have a think about what your intended purpose in life is, i.e. your God-given gift, what is really important for him, you, the planet and humanity as a whole. It is time to change your priorities. Your mission statement should change from "I somehow have to provide for myself" to "I want to be a Creator and do what I enjoy, I want to express my God-given gift in the best way possible for the good of the people, the planet and myself." My dears, I know how hard it is to accomplish this in your material world, in which one has to pay bills and buy food every single day. Your human society has no intention of setting you free from its slavery, but you are guided by your spirit, and if you are out of work (which, although it provided a living, brought no enjoyment and did not satisfy your spiritual needs to the full), then your spirit has already began to guide you. It has done everything to nudge you towards your dream, what you have come to this world for, your happiness and the true joy of your soul. Start doing what you have longed to do all your life without asking yourself "How will I pay the bills?" (the question comes from your ego, which desperately wants everything to stay as it was before). I GIVE YOU MY PROMISE THAT ONCE YOU START FOLLOWING YOUR PASSION, DOING WHAT BRINGS YOU JOY, CARRYING OUT YOUR SOUL'S TASKS, YOU WILL HAVE ALL MATERIAL WEALTH THAT YOU COULD ONLY DREAM OF. THE MOST IMPORTANT THING IS TO BELIEVE IN IT!

If your situation manifests itself in the form of an illness, please don't despair, just listen to a part of your Self that you either don't see or dismiss. Let it tell you what it thinks and feels, and you will easily identify a belief or an emotion that caused your illness. Accept that part of yourself, love it and dissolve it in your divine love, and the illness will start to diminish. As soon as the beliefs or emotions that caused it get completely dissolved in your love, the illness will go away altogether.

The second important development on the way to ascension, after the second conscious decision has been made, is the recognition of the fact that you will no longer be a human and your old way of life will be gone forever. Apart from the fact that you will have immortal physical bodies and will no longer need food or water, everything else will change as well. On the way to ascension you will find that what gave you pleasure before has disappeared from your life. (My channel, for example, used to really enjoy drinking beer with various savory fish snacks.) Over the course of time, an increase in your vibrations will result in the fact that you will simply become unable to consume alcohol or animal source foods. This can cause a "joys of life crisis," as my partner calls it. I am not excluding the possibility that for some time your libido diminishes and you lose interest in sexual intimacy with your partner. But my dears, believe me that it's a temporary condition, as your whole body adjusts to the new divine vibrations and your identity gradually transforms into the divine identity, or to be more precise, it dissolves into it. Therefore, don't despair, but seek new wonderful things that would make you happy during this transition period.

Please understand that ascension is not a journey of hardship and sufferings, requiring a complete renunciation of all human needs -it is quite the opposite. Ascension requires your persevering desire to be happy. Being happy and having no limitation in the sources of your happiness is your sacred God-given right. You may ask "But what about those people who become happy at the misfortune of others and other similar destructive things?" It is quite simple, my dears, the increase in the level of your vibration steadily raises the level of your consciousness, hence you become unable to derive joy from destructive things or sufferings of other beings. New beautiful and harmonious things will bring you joy. Look for the sources of your happiness, and you will most definitely find them. And remember: God wants you to feel happy on the Earth because you do YOUR job. Know this and strive for your happiness.

I wish you happiness, because I love you.

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE NATURE OF EVIL

Hello my dear and beloved souls.

I am God the Father, one of the authors of this Universe. Today I would like to shed light on such a controversial and important topic as EVIL. What is it, why does it exist, and how can you neutralize it in your own lives and on the Earth in general?

I would like to begin our conversation with a typical example, which will make sense to everyone. God sent his only son in the form of Jesus Christ down to the Earth. Jesus Christ spread his teaching among the people, taught his apostles and numerous disciples, but it was his martyric death that led his teachings to be dispersed among populations over a vast territory. Do you think that if Jesus did not die at such an early age or if he died as a result of an accident, for example, being bitten by a rabid dog, would his teachings excite as much enthusiasm in his disciples and would his teachings spread over such vast distances and affect so many people? The answer is obviously a "No".

My dears, the thing is that in your three-dimensional world losing someone close or a loved one is the most powerful motivational factor for the one left behind to seek God and to try and understand "WHY?" And, most importantly, having found the answer, to reunite with the temporary lost and beloved soul. Souls become so engulfed by the three-dimensional world that it becomes very difficult for them to break free from its chains and fallacies. This is exactly why a different system of motivational factors exists to act as an "engine" for humans on their spiritual journey, whilst various negative, as it first seems, situations, such as illnesses, poverty, fear of loss or fear of death, play the role of your reference beacons through the darkness. Such beacons surface once in a while, as reminders of the need to solve the mystery of your origin and find your inner power that is your birthright – the power of God. Unfortunately, if someone lives very well in the three-dimensional world, i.e. they are completely healthy, loved by their family, have work and make a good living, and there is no space for illness, suffering and death in their life, it is unlikely that they would actually ask themselves "Who are we?" and "Why are we here?" And it is far from certain that they would come to the right conclusions. That is why what you call EVIL exists in your three-dimensional world.

On divine planes of existence there is no such thing as evil, everything that exists there consists of love. All is love. But in your world there is the concept of good and evil, in which good and evil are opposing forces. Believe me, it just reflects a certain level of consciousness, or, if you will, a way of perceiving the world. As soon as your consciousness widens and you start seeing the world through the eyes of the Creator, you will realize that in fact evil does not exist. You will see all the beauty of the things that happen around you, understand the Creator's plan, and realize that even in the worst atrocity you can find God's love for you. It is the evil that exists in your perception of the world, that acts as a powerful engine, making you evolve from man to God-man. This evil, playing its part in your life, is in fact your best teacher. As it draws near, it makes you constantly think about God, when all other apprehensible earthly means of fighting have been exhausted. It is exactly the closeness of terrible inevitable death from the hands of evil that, as time goes by, keeps your consciousness completely occupied in search of spiritual origins of evil and finding solutions to the problem of evil with the help of the divine power - your own divine power. But in order to use it, my dears, it must be mastered first. Having become God and having defeated evil through your Divine power, not only do you overcome negative situations in your life but you also acquire, without even noticing it, the mightiness of God and expand your awareness about the nature of the world and alter your perception of what the truth is. In a word, you begin to walk your spiritual path. As they say in your Eastern teachings: "Once you choose the way, you have already won." And in the western Christianity – "Walk and ye shall reach." Isn't that right, my dears?

To sum it all up, and at the same time in response to the people's most frequently asked question, which, take it on trust, is "How could God let this happen?" I answer to you: "Because I love you, because I want you to behold your true spiritual nature and acquire your power that is rightly yours. And once you have that power, I want you to change the world in which you live." Besides, all this has been going on for a long time, and the time when mankind enters a Golden Age, as you call it, is not far. Evil will no longer need to enact the role of the motivational force to make you move along the spiritual path. You will simply no longer require your "black teacher" in the form of evil, because by then you will have fully learnt the lessons that it wanted to teach you.

As for the existence of evil for everyone individually, I want to elucidate, my dears, that what you need to understand and accept first of all is the fact that evil exists in each of you. It is a human attribute that you get when you come to such a three-dimensional world as yours. As scary as it sounds, all existing evil that affects you individually, only happens because there are parts of you that you either don't see or openly reject. Only complete acceptance of the existence of evil in yourself can resolve negative situations that you encounter, because those kind of situations only occur to make you look for information on what God teaches about HOW to 'fight' evil in spiritual sources, and use it. But this would only be the first step. Once you acknowledge the existence of evil in yourself, you become whole and start making conscious decisions on whether to do something evil or not.

The second step to your victory over evil is to dissolve those parts of yourself that are "evil" in the divine love, your divine love. Once you are able to love all those parts of yourself that believe in the power of evil, those parts that are convinced that evil is invincible, those parts that have committed it themselves, and once you realize the true role of evil and understand its nature, your own vibration level will automatically increase and you will no longer attract evil into your life.

What does this mean? You all know about the law of attraction, which states that 'like attracts like.' I will try to explain it in simple words. Your human being consists of a large number of Selves: these are your emotions, your thoughts, your ego, your subconsciousness, your Higher Self. The existence of many of your Selves is often hidden from your conscious perception, and you can only think about yourself what your critical mind thinks. Meanwhile, your shadow parts emit vibrations of what they feel, think and what they really are, into the Universe. Once out in the world, these vibrations find exactly what they emit themselves, as a result you end up attracting certain situations (here in particular we are talking about evil) into your human life.

Thus, in order to completely eliminate situations that manifest all existing forms of evil from your life, you need to illuminate all parts of yourself that are hidden from your consciousness with the light of the divine love. You need to accept them, start to love them, listen to them, comfort them and dissolve them in your divine love. Once you have done this, the vibration level of your being will rise. Without even realizing it you will cease to emit vibrations that attract evil into your life and evil will no longer be able to interact with you. Things are not attracted to what they are not per se. Put simply, EVIL would not seek LIGHT, because it knows that it's pointless - it would clearly have nothing to teach you, if you have already learnt all the necessary lessons.

So, defeating the world evil is not about a physical elimination of EVIL or people who happen to be its carriers, but about working on your own consciousness, learning about all your Selves, and accepting and dissolving them in your divine love. And, of course, it is also about telling others about it, and leading them by example. That way, one by one, you will be able to raise the vibration of humanity and eventually EVIL will simply cease to exist. When this happens, you will already be in the fifth dimension of the Universe, in a world where there is no evil but only God's love. There, you will have new interesting lessons and experiences, you will immerse yourselves in the exciting world of space travel, socialize with like-minded beings, not just aliens, teach people who have stayed in the fourth density of the Universe, and become Keepers and Mentors of a multitude of three-dimensional worlds. I very much look forward to that happening.

I express my great love for you.

ABOUT FOOD

Hello my dear and beloved souls.

I am God the Father, one of the creators of your Universe. Today I would like to talk to you about food. Yes, you heard this right, I'd like to talk precisely about food. I consider this topic important, as in the near future, many kinds of animals, including domestic ones, will be gone. They won't be able to withstand the rising vibrations of the planet or readjust, and will hence continue their journeys on other third dimensional planets. That's why, my dears, you must adjust your gastronomical preferences, while you have opportunity. In the future, on the fourth dimensional Earth, you will only be eating plant foods. Many of you will stop eating altogether, and eventually will stop drinking too, but only those of you who have chosen Ascension and who can reach it. The rest of the people remaining in the fourth density of the Universe will find the transition into vegetarianism extremely difficult, when all the animals that make up your diet perish. Please understand that the departure of these species is essential for a harmonious transition of your planet into the fourth dimension and there isn't any environmental disaster in this whatsoever. Therefore, I urge you to start changing your eating habits right now, then you will not go through hunger and suffering when meat disappears from the shelves of your stores and from the planet in general.

To begin with, I'd like to dispel a few myths, which exist in your society, about food.

First of all, animal protein, deemed necessary by your doctors, is extremely difficult for the body to break down and to digest – it takes more energy to process it than vegetable protein, which is naturally lighter and requires a lot less energy to digest. Believe me, my dears, there is no actual medical evidence that not eating meat leads to any problems, no. It is a hoax concocted by your scientists, as hundreds of thousands of people have been living on the Earth for a long time without eating animals, and believe me, they are perfectly healthy and feel very well.

Secondly, increased vibrations of your physical bodies will simply not accept low vibrations of slaughtered animals. Please understand, my dears, that animals also have a consciousness and emotions that they experience at the moment of death. The animals that are slaughtered suffer fear. The vibration of fear, the aggression and other negative emotions saturate their bodies. These energies that you absorb when eating the meat, will have a negative impact on your bodies. That is why it is better to start giving up slaughtered meat right now, whilst your body has not began doing it itself yet. Believe me, when your body starts rejecting it, you will feel much worse physically: you will also not be able to understand what is happening to you exactly and will try to treat yourselves, but, unfortunately, nothing will help. And if you leave it until the very last moment when all domestic animals that make up your diet are gone, then you will starve until your body can readjust to a vegetarian diet. In addition to that, you should also give up dairy products now, because animals that give you milk will also be gone, and there will be no dairy products.

In order to maintain your new fourth-dimensional bodies in excellent physical condition, I recommend that you eat a variety of cereal and grain crops, as well as all kinds of vegetables. But you should cultivate them without using any toxic chemicals. Don't use genetic modification to grow plants, as it violates the natural balance and such foods can affect your physical bodies extremely negatively. Don't overindulge in exotic fruit either, because large amounts of it can cause allergies and have a negative impact on the digestive system of your body, as they contain enzymes that can have an adverse effect on your stomach in the process of digestion.

Please give up any unnatural food products with artificial taste enhancers and flavors. They also have a negative impact on your body. In addition, your taste buds get deadened by artificial flavor enhancers. As a result, you can't eat regular food, because to you it seems bland and tasteless. These are the sly tricks of food producers, aimed at increasing their income at the cost of your health. I ask you not to turn yourselves into a mindless race of slaves, with which one can do anything they want. You have enough food products, which are extremely cheap and nutritious. Learn how to cook them well without using any artificial flavor enhancers. Stop buying artificial food substitutes. Believe me, this will lead to the need to rebuild your economy, because free conscious people don't want to be slaves and eat anything. Your food manufacturers will have to restructure food production because if they don't, they could lose everything.

Over time, the amount of food you consume will decrease, and gradually you will opt out of food altogether and will only drink water. My dears, be prepared that certain forces on the planet, hungry for total control over you, will take unprecedented measures to ensure that you remain their slaves. They will intentionally do everything to control the supply of food and clean water, selling them at very high prices. For that reason you should look for places on the planet that will provide you with free fresh water: water wells, boreholes, springs, and other clean and fresh bodies of water. The planet will give you everything you need – know it.

I also want to talk to you about leather and fur clothing. Such clothing is a product of the slaughterous consumption system, which also carries low vibrations. The need to protect the human body from cold, dirty and wet conditions has become irrelevant a long time ago as you have invented materials that protect your body from the wet and cold much more efficiently than animal skin and fur. Now days, clothing that is made of leather and fur is mostly worn for prestige, which is essential for individuals, who are under total control of their own ego, as a way to maintain their self-esteem.

Such a state of affairs won't last very long, because the vibrations of the planet are increasing fast and the people whose souls don't wish to move into the fourth density and feel the need to further explore three-dimensional worlds, will be leaving the planet very quickly in large numbers. Those souls who have chosen to stay and learn their lessons in the fourth dimension of existence, must adopt new ways of consumption by changing their eating habits and clothing requirements as soon as possible, because the planet will change soon and many species of plants and animals will disappear and continue their life in other worlds. This is why I strongly suggest that you carefully consider the information above and start changing your way of living right now: then it would be much easier for you in the future, and you will expedite changes in your physical body instead of hindering this process with low vibration foods and clothes.

Also I believe it's appropriate to remind the many people who have chosen to remain on the Earth that alcohol and other harmful substances, which you are currently actively consuming, won't be appropriate in the new Earth vibrations. Besides, your physical bodies won't be able to take these substances in as they vibrate at such a low frequency. Many of you have already come across this problem as your bodies have stopped accepting alcohol or nicotine, not to mention other harmful substances. That is why those of you whose predilections for various alcoholic beverages were a part of the pleasure circuit on the Earth, will have to get used to other beverages, which will be pleasant-tasting and no less satisfying than alcohol. All of these changes will be met with a lot of resistance from your critical mind and your ego, because the ego controls you through those predilections. Be firm, persistent and persevering on this path. Make decisions knowingly and consciously. Under no circumstances should you make the body suffer. Look for ways to replace your favorite foods, look for delicious vegetarian recipes and, most importantly, understand that food, drink and clothing should make you happy, and not just support the body's vital functions.

The changes that are taking place on the planet and in your personal life now can be extremely difficult and destructive, but believe me, it is possible to change everything right now. First of all, be aware of everything that is happening with you and look for new ways to enjoy life on the Earth: new delicious vegetarian dishes, soft drinks made from natural ingredients, beautiful and fashionable clothes from vegetable or synthetic fabrics instead of leather and fur. I don't want you to suffer and I don't want you to become holy (in your understanding, that would mean denying physical desires of the body). My beloveds, I want you to be happy and to enjoy life on the Earth, and to feel my love for you every second of your life. But for this to happen, you need to change your consciousness and replace the old ways of perceiving the world with the new divine way. I am sure that you will succeed. Listen to the voice of your body and your desires, don't let your ego or bad habits rule over you.

I express my deep love for you.

THE LIFE OF THE ASCENDED

Today's message is addressed to all those people who have chosen to ascend into the fifth density of the Universe and have already been walking their own individual ascension paths for a long time. Many of you are wondering what awaits you next, what is going to happen to your families and your loved ones, and whether you will be able to live the life you are used to with your families.

I know you are interested to know what a "light body" and the "crystallization of your structure" are, what it would look like in reality and what your life in the fifth dimension will be like. I know many of you have been tormented by these questions. Some of you, who can't even imagine what is really going on, question whether they want this change or not, whether their life in the fifth dimension would be as rich and interesting as here, in the world of the third and fourth dimension, or not. I know and I see that for many of you those kind of doubts are hindering your ability to raise your vibration, since you want to stay here a little bit longer. My dears, this is quite natural. After all, despite all the shortcomings of three-dimensional worlds, they are beautiful and have a lot of great things, which have been making you happy for a very long time, and you are scared to be left without those things after ascension. "And what will replace them?" you ask yourselves.

I remember very well and clearly how each of you chose ascension, how you progressed towards ascension by leaps and bounds, how proud you were of your choice, how much you wished for ascension to come sooner, how much you wanted to unite with your divine essence and attain physical immortality. But over time, these ideas have become imbedded in you, and you became a hundred percent convinced that this would definitely happen - you would gain immortality and all your divine power, which is rightfully yours. And when you have no doubts whatsoever that this will happen soon, because your whole essence knows it and you are certain about this on a subconscious level, many of you start to feel a certain kind of sadness - you want to stop, look back and stay here for a few more years at least without ascending.

You may experience many changes in the process of your gradual ascension, such as the inability to drink alcohol or digest certain kinds of food, or, in some of you, a loss of libido at some point in time. Many of you have experienced financial problems brought about by a change of career and the search for your place in the orchestra of ascension. Almost all of you have been constantly experiencing problems with the physical body, feeling continual pain and discomfort caused by a rapid increase in vibrations of your physical body. This is because all your low vibration cells must die and be replaced by new cells, which can withstand new higher rates of vibration of the spirit. The normal rate at which all the cells in the body die off and get replaced by new ones is seven earthly years. For many of you, depending on your chosen method of ascension, this time period has been significantly reduced, which has naturally led to painful sensations for long periods of time, according to your earthly measures of time.

Of course, all these processes were important for you as a spirit. You perceived them as something wonderful, indicating that you are moving forward without any let ups. But for your human personality they were shattering - your mental, emotional and physical components went through suffering, fear, anxiety and despair. All these processes have caused severe stress. That is why when there was a lull, a sort of respite in the process of destruction of your human personality, suddenly you needed positive emotions and happiness to compensate for the enormous amount of energy spent bravely enduring all the changes that were happening to you and at the same time moving forward without stopping under any circumstances.

It would be quite natural for you to turn to proven ways to feel happy, enjoy life, feel joy and pleasure. Many of you have been given special farewell windows i.e. certain periods of time when you could drink alcohol, eat any food you like and indulge in carnal pleasures without harming yourselves or your spiritual growth. It was a gift of the spirit intended to relieve the stress caused by the destruction of a huge number of your human beliefs, which, naturally, was very painful for many of you.

However, as you already know from your own experience, after a while, you stopped searching for happiness and pleasure in the old ways without any involvement of the spirit, because your level of consciousness had elevated high enough for you to be able to knowingly stop using the old low vibration ways to make yourself feel happier, such as drinking alcohol, indulging in pleasures of the flesh, consuming low vibration foods and many other individual sources of happiness.

Now that your identity has stabilized, you feel that things have slowed down in your progression to ascension, since it is necessary for your body and the physical world around you to adjust to your level of consciousness, which has made a huge leap forward in such a short space of time. As a result, many of you, having realized the inevitability of such an event as your own ascension, began to feel a certain longing for the old world, your old life and personality. This is an absolutely natural process and you should not be afraid of it or resist it - just experience it in all its manifestations and move on. Now is the time for many of you to start taking action as a new person with new behavior patterns at a new place.

Today, each of you is interested to know what life after ascension will be like. I will try to give as full and easy to comprehend an answer as possible, making it intelligible to you at your current level of understanding of yourself and your place in the Universe.

On the surface, your bodies will look the same as before, but with a few slight changes. You will become more beautiful, younger and completely healthy. Your bodies won't age and will be immortal. They will be much more resistant than they were before – they won't be affected by external factors such as heat, cold, viruses, diseases, poisons and many other ones. You will no longer need food, and with time you won't require water either. With the power of imagination, you will be able to instantly materialize what you need: clothes, belongings, a dwelling and so on. You will move around the surface of the planet reaching any distance instantly without any vehicles. But in order to travel in space you will have to build space ships first. Over time, your bodies won't require oxygen either. You will connect with your Merkaba and be able to travel in space without external ships.

You will be able to interact with any entities whose vibrations range within one and a half density up or down. This means that people of the third dimension who remain on the Earth at the time of your ascension, will no longer see you. People of the fourth density, however, will be able to see you, but their mind won't let them perceive you as a person, in the same way as the Indigenous people only saw the movement of the water when Columbus' ships sailed past them, even though their optic nerve caught the ships' image, because the ships themselves never existed in their consciousness. At will, you will be able to slightly lower your vibrations for communicating with people. People who are near you at the time of ascension, will receive a huge amount of divine energy released during your leap. Yes, you will still have close relationships, sex and family, but you will be unable to interact with people of the third density, because their bodies would not be able to withstand this. Your loved ones who have also chosen to ascend, yet who are behind you in their individual schedules at the time of your shift, will stay in the fourth and a half density and will be able to interact with you, both physically and in their consciousness.

Those who choose to continue their exploration of three-dimensional worlds and will not have already left by the time of your ascension, will be unable to see or interact with you. They will soon leave in order to incarnate on other third density planets, which you will be looking after, helping souls, which are dear to you, on their evolutionary paths. However, they will be unable to see or hear you.

On the New Earth you will live in communities of ascended people, actively teaching people of the fourth density in areas such as social development and spiritual evolution. You will interact with chosen people only, those who will be teaching others, since the increase in vibration from the fourth to the fifth density does not happen instantaneously. That is why people who are the closest to the fifth density will be able to actively communicate with you, acquiring all the necessary wisdom from you and transmitting it to those people with whom they can communicate freely at their vibration level.

Each of you has a certain group of souls assigned to you, whom you shall lead and teach, but that will only happen after your ascension, through the most advanced people of the fourth density whose level of vibration is 4.7 and above. As for joy, it will be different, because you will be constantly experiencing the grace and love of God in the form of energy that will completely engulf and envelop you. As a result, you will no longer need any energy boosters, such as delicious foods, alcohol or loveless carnal pleasures. Believe me, my dears, you will feel wonderful all the time. Soon it will become your reality.

With love for you,
God the Father

LOVING YOURSELF

Hello my dear and beloved listeners.

Today I would like to convey a message through my channel about self-love. A lot has been written about self-love by esoteric psychologists, as you call them. But today I would like to tell you about the love of one's self as God's manifestation. All of you have heard many times that God is love and that He loves us unconditionally, regardless of our behavior or our actions in the world. All this is true, but you often misjudge what self-love really is, by forming your opinions on the basis of the belief that you will be able to love yourself more if you meet certain criteria, which you impose on yourself as on God's manifestation. Oh, you still don't walk on water, so you're still not quite a manifestation of God on the Earth, therefore you can't love yourself as God does, but must go further, develop spiritually, meditate and do something else in order to become more spiritually advanced.

My dears, such thoughts are misleading: you will never be able to walk on water until you learn to love yourselves as manifestations of God on the Earth. Whilst you continue to think that this will come to you at some point in the future, it never will. That's a fact and it can't be otherwise. You don't need to reach any goals, you just have to realize this. As a matter of fact, what you call a spiritual path is not actually a path, but the realization that you yourself are a manifestation of the Creator in this world. Whether you can achieve what you want or not, I am asking you to love yourself regardless of the outcome. You incarnated in this third-density world and it has completely restricted your consciousness. You have embraced the belief that reality is what it seems to be. As you awaken and become aware of yourself as God, you begin to change your behavioral style in the world and take actions which you would have never dared to do before – actions that your third-density critical mind considers meaningless, unforgivably stupid and a borderline suicide. But for a man who has found their true purpose in life, these actions are far from thoughtless: they start taking actions not as a human in the pursuit of typical human ambitions, which in the end boil down to such simple things as physical survival, accumulation of material wealth, satisfaction of physical desires and the desire to control others and the world, but as a spirit. For some of you, ruling over others is indeed the meaning of life.

Once you know your true nature, you put all these ambitions on the back burner and eventually they disappear altogether. As soon as you start doing what your soul wants to do in this world -factually, as soon as you start to create using the unique creativity that God has given you - everything will immediately fall into place. You will have everything that third-dimensional human beings aspire to provide for themselves, and you will derive pleasure from work well done, which your soul wanted to accomplish so much before coming into this world.

The fulfillment that you derive from doing what you really want to do as a spirit and seeing the results of your work, brings real pleasure. It penetrates you, at the same time satisfying thirst for anything you wish for. The Creator's truly boundless and unconditional love for you and for all created things, since everything is made of him, permeates you. You take pleasure in what you do in the same way, because everything you create is made from you as God's manifestation in this world. But fulfilling your soul's wishes a hundred percent would be extremely difficult or almost impossible without the complete and unconditional love for yourself as an ideal manifestation of the Creator in your world.

I would like to tell you that you have all been made absolutely perfect by yourselves - the way you have to look and with character traits you as a spirit have to have for the accomplishment of your unique task in this world. Don't blame yourself for making errors in judgment, don't blame yourself for not being able to fight an illness, overcome poverty or forgive somebody else or yourself. These are all your ideal qualities that help you on your journey to understanding that you are God, manifested here on the Earth to fulfill your own unique mission. I say to you: "Love yourself now for what you are, just the way you are with all your, as you think, shortcomings and life's problems." They are little more than simulators for you, the light beacons by means of which your God-man's consciousness is being awakened. Without them, your spiritual awakening would be impossible. And your experience in overcoming everything that separates you from God will be essential when you find your true purpose in this world and finally start fulfilling your spiritual tasks.

By combining the experience of overcoming everything that is human - essentially, your progress from a man to God using special guiding beacons in your changing perception of yourself and the world, - with all your spiritual knowledge embedded in your divine consciousness, you will be able to successfully accomplish the tasks of the spirit in your world. Love yourself and praise yourself for all the mistakes and failures on your journey as a human being. Because if the spirit, having reincarnated in your world with a certain mission, did not get the essential experience of being a human in the world of a certain density in which it materialized, then it wouldn't be able to fully and effectively fulfill its set tasks, as those tasks are always related to the evolution of souls in this world. Believe me, if you didn't fall as many times, if you didn't make as many mistakes, if you didn't do everything that you blame yourself for, things you would have wanted to do differently, you wouldn't become who you are now, find your unique divine task, and realize what your unique divine gift and ways of realizing it are.

Your personal journey before you started fulfilling the tasks of the spirit, was extremely important for the spirit in order to successfully accomplish its mission to evolve as a soul and help other souls in their evolution too. You were always carrying out the tasks of the spirit, even if you didn't realize it, although this was just a period of preparation and learning. That is why, my dears, you should love yourself for everything you have done, everything you have accomplished, and everything that helped you acknowledge yourself as a spirit in the human body and start acting as a spirit, not as a human being. Remember that you were always wonderful, magnificent and perfect, even when you were afraid, couldn't accomplish anything, committed evil deeds, felt hatred and couldn't find forgiveness in yourself - you played a role of a human being beautifully and acquired the necessary experience for your spirit to accomplish its task in this world. If you have come to realize that you are a spirit in the human body, if you think you have a wish that you must fulfill at any cost or your life here would be futile, then you should know that you did a great job as a human being, went through all the necessary lessons in your life journey and now you are ready. The second phase of your mission under the title "The integration of Spirit into the three-dimensional world," as they would say in your spy movies, has begun.

I love you for what you have done as people, I'm proud of you, you have gone through all the necessary experiences and can now act as God-men. I am only asking you for one thing: thank yourselves for your three-dimensional human journey, praise yourselves for everything, absolutely everything that you used to condemn, what you did not like, what you considered a mistake. Love yourselves for what you have gone through as people, be proud of yourselves for having successfully passed all the lessons that you planned and for having found all the guiding beacons, which is a fact, because you are reading or listening to this message now. You are the heroes to look up to, you are already the winners, because you are reading this now. Love yourselves, be proud of yourselves and enjoy your work - you will do it perfectly well!

And now, having realized that your whole life was just a prelude, jump bravely into the abyss in front of you, do something special that's impossible for a human being, but so desired by your spirit. That something that seems to you, as a human being, insane, irrational, and frightening, so much so that it appears to be absolutely unattainable for you and too good to be true. Something you were even afraid to dream of, because you could not fully love yourself and didn't hope that this could happen in your life - that exact something is your true soul's desire, the second phase of the mission that you need to accomplish. Imagine that you are a scout, who has failed, and you are being chased by your enemies. There is a precipice in front of you and nowhere to go. Through a portable radio your commander says to you: "Well done you, jump and you will fly!" How can you believe this, if you have been undercover for so long that you have completely got into the role and believe that you are a human? But, my dears, that's not the case. You are a Divine spirit in the human body, and you can fly, if you can recollect that. If there is no turning back, and you know who you are - jump and I will catch you for you are I! All of you are I! And there is nothing impossible for the spirit!

My children, I urge you to wake up and realize who you are and what you need to do. Do a deed not as a human but as a spirit. What would you do if you were a hundred percent sure that you are God in a human body, immortal and omnipotent. What would you do to accomplish your unique divine mission on the Earth? That is exactly what you need to do, no matter how much unreasonable it may seem to you as a human. If it has crossed your mind, your mind in particular, then that will be your way of beginning the second phase of the mission, when you will be required to act not as a human being in a three-dimensional world, but as a God-man with all the ensuing consequences. Because the second part of the mission is much more difficult, interesting and fascinating. At the moment you wouldn't be able to believe or imagine what interesting things I have prepared for you on your path to accomplishing your mission on the Earth as a spirit and as a God-man.

Take action and you will succeed! Always remember who you are, don't let the old human paradigm of judgment deceive or confuse you. You are awake. The sleep is over. A new real day begins. And it is time for you to get to work as a spirit in order to do the work of the spirit. You are the bravest, most courageous, the best of my children! Take action and you will succeed!

With great love for you,
God the Father

MY WORK IS MY LOVE AND PASSION

I greet you all, my dear listeners and readers.

Today I would like to tell you how important everything that you do is for me, and what attitude you should take toward everything that you will be doing in the future, whilst accomplishing your mission.

First of all I would like to say that when I create a world of any density from the first to the seventh - you call it a material world, I see and imagine it outside of time, which you think exists: I see all the events that can occur and all the choices that souls can make in this particular world if they choose to undertake a challenge there, or to be more precise, an exploration. Yes, that's right – an exploration. Souls don't undergo hardships to learn life lessons, as you may think, but explore worlds of different densities in order to pass their experiences to God so that he can continue to evolve and create new universes.

"How can God evolve? - You ask. - Isn't he perfect? " Yes he is. But when his children, i.e. you in the process of soul evolution, explore the worlds that I have created, and develop, moving from one density to another, then those parts of God that have created you with higher densities precisely because of your previous experience, also progress up to the next level of soul evolution and eventually become equal to God. Then they get an opportunity to create their own universe the way they want and begin its exploration, after begetting all angel souls and all matter from themselves in all the densities. Yes, that's exactly how God evolves. When all the created souls of the first density ascend to the twelfth density, they subsequently become the Great Central Sun and gain the ability to create their own universe and other souls, and start the process all over again.

Thus, the number of universes is unlimited. It is constantly increasing and this process will never end. That's exactly why your role is so important in this process of soul evolution. Even if just one soul dwelling in a third density world makes a choice whilst being filled with the love of God, in the long term, it will lead to the ascension of the planet, which, in turn, will result in the transition of entities of higher densities, who are essentially your parents, into even higher densities. Respectively, also because of the ascension, their procreators will shift too.

I can't say that I am an individual according to your human understanding of the term, but, nevertheless, I exist in the 12th density, and your ascension will lead to the fact that I, as a son of God, who created your Universe, will ascend to a higher state of being and become God. This means that I will be able to create my own universe and generate billions of new souls who will start their evolution from a hydrogen atom, endowed with a singular consciousness of the Creator, to creators of all things, who dwell in the 12th density, such as myself at this moment in time.

Have you ever thought that just one individual choice can lead to the creation of a whole universe with billions of stars, angels and souls, who will be manifested in dense material worlds and go through their journeys of soul evolution over millions or even billions of your earth years. And all this can happen because of you and your brave and decisive actions. Despite the fact that the third density world has very much restricted your consciousness, you manage to find the strength to believe who you really are and act according to your unique mission.

My dears, please understand and realize that in order for a new universe to be born, each of you must take your place in the orchestra of ascension first and start enjoying your work as a spirit. The creation of the Great Central Sun and your Universe was my love and passion. There is nothing more beautiful and joyful for me than seeing my children become creators. Nothing brings me more happiness than your achievements: in the same way as when your children learn to walk, say their first word, start university, become heroes, inventors or defenders, it makes you feel very proud of their achievements as parents, or when they suffer due to failures, it makes you feel tremendously worried, yet you continue to love and support them no matter what.

My dears, believe me, the most difficult part on the journey of soul evolution is the transition from the world of the third and fourth density, where you are endowed with mortal bodies and separated from my love by a certain veil, into the fifth density of the Universe, where you gain immortal physical bodies and begin to help me look after newer worlds and third density souls that explore them. That's exactly why your transition is so important. Your entire Universe, all souls and angels are now eagerly watching over every one of you – how you awaken, how you finally realize who you really are, how you recollect what your soul's true desire is and start acting as a spirit in the human body.

God is awaiting your transition with such great reverence. Ultimately, it would mean that I, as a 12th density being will receive energy for the creation of a new Universe, and will myself become the Great Central Sun, or, in your understanding – God. Now you know how important, valuable and significant you are. After all, the birthing of a new universe depends on you. That's why I'm asking you not to doubt your chosen way, not to stop, but to go forth boldly! You simply can't fail to accomplish your mission, as you are a divine spirit for whom nothing is impossible. Each of you will have everything you need: information, knowledge, abilities, strength, energy - all the necessary resources.

Create, my dears! Create! Build the Paradise on the Earth! In so doing, you will create a new universe. If just one of you doesn't accomplish their mission and gives it up because of self-distrust or a fear of failure, you will jeopardize the entire experiment. Similarly, each person who accepts their mission and begin to execute it successfully, can become the straw that tips the scales, which will lead to a wondrous leap of all the souls in the Universe and subsequently beget a new universe. That's the reason why I am asking you, my children, to believe in yourselves. You will succeed!

Don't lose heart, try different ways, think like a spirit not like a man.

Raise your consciousness to the level of the Creator and you will certainly succeed!

ABOUT SORROWS AND COMPASSION

Hello my dear and beloved souls.

Today I would like to talk to you about how one should regard the suffering of others and what you call compassion. Despite the fact that your world has irrevocably crossed a threshold beyond which there is no return to the three-dimensionality, the process of transition is not yet complete. As you know, times of change are extremely difficult for people both physically and psychologically, because everything changes and the old familiar way of life collapses. Many of you find adapting to new circumstances very challenging. You see a lot of suffering in the world: wars, famine, epidemics, natural disasters, a great increase in mortality rates from various diseases in very young people. All of these things whip up tension and at times it makes you wonder, what kind of enlightenment are we talking about, where are we going, if there is so much suffering and so many deaths?

My dears, please don't be anxious and don't upset yourselves. You are already at a certain level of consciousness, when you can comprehend that you are immortal, and death is just a way for a soul to restart its journey in a new body and in different circumstances in order to explore other manifested worlds of the Creator. Many souls living in your world now won't chose ascension, not even into the world of the fourth density, and that's an objective factor. And not because they are inferior, not as clever or haven't learnt their lessons. Not at all, all souls are loved by God equally. But some of them have made their independent decision to explore three-dimensional worlds on other planets, because they haven't yet fully explored all the variety of possible life experiences in three-dimensional worlds. Since the three-dimensional Earth will no longer exist, they will go through their experiences on other planets, which are ready to accept them according to their levels of vibration. That's why all these things that can frighten an ordinary person of the third density are taking place on the Earth now. But you, my dears, are already aware of your soul's immortal existence and recognize yourself as God's manifestation on the Earth. I therefore sincerely hope that you are no longer afraid of anything, knowing what kind of choice you made consciously – to go, or to stay and move forward to ascension.

I know that many of you are interested to know what happens if your partners and the people that are close to you choose to experience three-dimensional worlds on other planets, leave you behind in this world and all of a sudden you lose your family - all those people whom you have loved and continue to love. This induces fear and uncertainty. On the one hand, you as a guide, as a pioneer can start hauling them with you to ascension against the wishes of their soul. This, my dears, won't lead to anything good, but disappointment only. Because they won't appreciate your goodwill and will in fact reject you. As a result, you will suffer thinking that you could have done more and you weren't a good teacher or a guide. And you will wonder how can you lead others to enlightenment if you were unable to lead your nearest and dearest to it, those whom you love most. That will make you doubt your abilities, cause low self-esteem, slow down your spiritual growth and inhibit the accomplishment of your mission, your divine mission on the Earth. Yet it won't make your loved ones stay here, because they choose to incarnate on other planets and explore three-dimensional worlds, whilst you choose to ascend and look after those worlds, keeping an eye on the evolution of souls and helping them as much as possible.

I repeat myself: you will recognize immediately those who were close to you on the Earth, who were dear to you, all your beloved souls. You will guide and help them in their difficult task of exploring three-dimensional worlds with great love. But it is unlikely that they would be able to see you or talk to you. As time goes by for them (since for you the flow of time will stop as soon as you shift into the fifth density of the Universe) some of them will become able to hear or see you, for the purpose of receiving essential spiritual knowledge and creating mystery schools, as it has happened on the Earth many times in the past.

There is also another possible scenario, in which you may refuse to ascend and fulfill your divine mission, since it is precisely the fulfillment of the mission that would lead to your ascension into the fifth density. You can just stop and pretend that you don't know anything, don't understand what is happening on the Earth now and you are not a part of it. So that you can spend the rest of your time on the Earth with your dear ones in the hope that everything would be fine – you would disincarnate together and materialize on other third-density planets together. Perhaps many of you have already made such a decision a long time ago or are standing on the cusp of making it now. My dear and beloved souls, no matter how hard it is for you to admit it, but such a scenario will never happen, because you have come here to teach others and to lead them to ascension. All your explorations of third-dimensional worlds have already been completed a long time ago in other worlds. Your Higher Selves are well aware of who they really are, what kind of responsibility they have and what their role in the Universe is. That's why your loved ones will leave anyway, and you will be left here to continue your work, and to teach and guide people during the planet's transition into the fourth density of the Universe.

Your temporary refusal to carry out the mission for the sake of your beloved souls won't change anything, but will aggravate your suffering. Each passing day, when, pretending and smiling, you appease others by feigning your beliefs, will cause you incredible suffering. You will realize how much you could do and know that you are not doing it because of them. This heartache will completely deprive you of energy and strength, and may lead to depression and utter apathy. And believe me, your loved ones won't be happy to see you in such a state. Trust me, they would never wish you anything like that. Contrary, they want to see you happy, joyful, knowing your role in life and self-realized. They will give you their love and make you happy until the very last moment, as it is exactly what their Higher Selves agreed to incarnate as your friends and family for, whilst you were completing the first stage of the mission, acquiring all the necessary human life experience. They were a part of this experience. They loved you and played all possible roles so that you could, following your guiding lights in life, find your way to realizing that you are a manifestation of God with a very significant mission. If you have identified what your mission is and started to implement it, then they didn't come to the Earth and didn't do all this for nothing. They didn't live their lives in vain. Without them, you would not have coped. Without their help and support in difficult times you would not have found your true selves and your purpose in life on the Earth. Love them for it, thank them for their help and support, and when the time comes, let them go, knowing that you will soon see them on other planets in different bodies. You will definitely know that it is them, and will be able to be by their side, helping them and guiding them.

The highest joy for your beloved souls will be to know that they played their part so well that you acquired all the necessary experience in life, and when the time comes, you can wake up and do what you came here for. Don't deprive them of knowing that they played their role flawlessly, and as a result you have fulfilled your purpose. Sometimes, they even had to suffer and walk away from you, leaving you alone with your own thoughts, so that you could find yourself. Please realize all the beauty of the play performed by them, their true love for you, their care and warmth with which they did what they had to do for your and their sake. Look at it through the eyes of the Creator. Look at your kindred with his eyes – with his love, understanding and compassion for them and for yourself. Love yourself for who you are, love your family for their heroism and the role that they played in your life. Remember, the time will come when you will all be together surrounded by the love of the Creator. All souls are constantly evolving and moving up the spiral of spiritual evolution in order to eventually become God themselves and create their own universe.

Please understand that your decision to stay for them is a consequence of a false belief about what love really is, because it wouldn't make those for whom you have decided to sacrifice everything - your life, your true mission, your soul - happy. If you love them, make them happy by letting them finish their play. Let them play their roles until the end and watch how you are playing yours: let them see you in all your glory, fulfilling the desire of your soul. That would be a sign to them that everything has worked out really well, and that's exactly what will bring them genuine happiness and make them experience the joy of accomplishing their task. And if they chose to leave, don't stop them, don't make them suffer here, don't drag them with you, but thank them for their excellent work and let them go. Believe me, you will understand later that this is the best-case scenario.

Trust yourself as a manifestation of the Creator and take action.

I love you.

ABOUT THE STRUCTURE OF THE NEW SOCIETY

I greet you, my dear and beloved soul.

Today I would like to tell you what the society on the new fourth-density Earth will be like. I would like to talk to those people who choose to stay on the Earth and make a transition together with the planet into the fourth density of the Universe. As you have probably already realized, the Paradise on the Earth is simply impossible without a complete and unconditional transformation of social relations and the economic system and, most importantly, without a single common motivation of the new Earth humanity for enlightenment and well-being through the act of realizing one's divine nature.

Presumably, many of you have asked yourself "What would the restructuring process of the third-dimensional society into the fourth-dimensional one involve? How will the existing social system, in which oppression and domination over others solely for the sake of lucre without any other purposes, prevail? How will the economic system change, the system that focuses exclusively on profits at any cost, without taking into consideration the needs of the society, let alone nature or the planet's interests? "

My dears, the fact of the matter is that there will be centers of the new Earth enlightened society emerging in various places across the planet, which will cooperate with each other in pursuance of the common good and for the good of the planet as a whole. At the same time, third dimensional humankind and previously created third dimensional structures of the human society will continue to exist. They will experience a crisis of systems as the new higher vibrations of the planet start to gradually expose everything concealed by darkness, and every secret will come to light. Whereas, as you know, the whole existing three-dimensional system of world control rests exclusively on deception and people's ignorance.

Contrary to what many of you think, there is no any other force in the form of money or state powers that rely on the military to stay in power, that can make people hold their false beliefs about the state of affairs, except ignorance, deception and insufficient knowledge about the structure of the Universe and human nature. All existing three-dimensional authority of some people over others, only exists because your earthly lords keep their slaves' consciousness in the darkness of ignorance, whilst those people who are being dominated consider themselves to be their masters' slaves. This system of power rests exclusively on fear: the illusory fear of ignorant people to lose their job and salary, the fear of not being able to find a new job and as a consequence being unable to provide for themselves and their family in this world. And even the fear for their lives and the lives of their loved ones, which can be taken away by the powers that be, with the help of law enforcement authorities, for not obeying them. All these fears are illusory. Such things can only happen to people who believe in them, and who are convinced that that's how things work. And if it does happen, it happens specifically for one reason - for them to find the strength to understand the absurdity of such beliefs and destroy them, which will then raise their vibration to such a level that evil will no longer be able to interact with them.

The enlightened people, whose vibrations have reached a certain level where their fears and doubts have already been dispelled, and who have found their place in the orchestra of ascension, will be put in small groups and will cooperate with each other in accordance with their divine talents. These groups will increase in size, attracting more and more people who choose to ascend into the fourth and subsequently into the fifth density. Their relations and methods of operation will be based on entirely new principles, which have not been previously adopted in the three-dimensional world. There will be no dominance hierarchy, but talent-based organizing, taking into account unique ways of expressing them too, for the benefit of a whole group. i.e. in the new society an emphasis will be made specifically on identifying one's unique divine gift - that mission that has to be fulfilled by the divine spirit in the body of every human being.

As seats in the orchestra of ascension fill up, the small groups of enlightened fourth density people will become completely self-sufficient in providing all the essentials for life and comfortable functioning. They will start using new kinds of renewable energy resources solely to supply energy for production needs and to provide sustenance to the groups, and not to accumulate profits or monopolize power over people, which is currently the case in the three-dimensional world. This energy will only be used as a resource for the fulfillment of divine tasks for the good of human civilization. Many small groups will eventually abandon the monetary system of the three-dimensional world by creating their own money or other methods of exchange inside the small groups. Their functioning, even when they progress to form whole settlements, will be invisible to the forces reigning in the three-dimensional world, since people joining those groups will have to pass a certain vibration threshold, after which evil can no longer interact with them. At the initial stage they will still be physically visible to people of the third dimension, but in those people's minds they will be just human units of no interest to them and they won't pay any attention to them.

As the planetary vibrations continue to increase, people who choose to explore three-dimensional worlds, will be leaving faster and faster and in large numbers, because their physical bodies won't be able to withstand the planet's vibrations. Whilst the small groups of enlightened people of the fourth density will grow larger from small dwellings to whole towns and cities. Their spiritual guides will be wise and kind, motivated exclusively by the desire to help the members of the groups develop spiritually and organize the society and a civilization as a whole in the best possible way. Over time, they will have all the necessary information about technologies and what are the best ways for the civilization to function. Scientific and technological progress in such towns and cities will reach its peak, because their leaders will be provided with information about almost all aspects of life.

As vibrations of the groups' members rise, they will start eating vegetarian food only and stop consuming harmful substances. In such towns and cities there will be complete harmony and absolutely new methods of food, energy and transport production, as well as all other civilization attributes. But most importantly, the people's consciousness and motivation for life's journey will change completely. There will be no crime, authority or control. No deception, poverty or lack of anything and no diseases. That's exactly how the blossoming of human civilization will start: through the unification of spirituality and science, and through the realization of oneself as a divine creation, the discovery of one's place in civilization and the implementation of the divine mission in accordance with one's divine gift.

But the starting point for all of this is of course the process of elimination of three-dimensional beliefs from one's consciousness. The complete and unconditional destruction of the old world human personality and the unification of your human consciousness with your Higher Self will lead to the release from fears, doubts and misconceptions regarding your human nature and the ways in which human civilization functions.

Those people who choose to ascend into the fifth density, will transfer there in due time. But they will continue to interact with people of the fourth density in order to teach them and assist in the process of creating a harmonious civilization, congruent with the planet's new fourth density vibrations.

It will be a wonderful, harmonious world where humanity reaches its technological and social organization zenith. People of the fourth density will be aware of their divine nature, but will still have mortal bodies and pass through the wheel of life until they make a decision to ascend into the fifth density.

I appeal to both guides and teachers, as well as everyone who chooses to ascend into the fourth density: take your place in the orchestra of ascension, start fulfilling your spiritual tasks, join forces with like-minded people, work together toward the creation of the new world, collaborate according to your talents and purposes. A group of only 12 people, who have taken their seats in the ascension orchestra and started fulfilling their purposes in life, will reach ascension much faster and with less difficulties than if they did it alone. And even seemingly the wildest goals set by such a group will be achieved in the shortest period of time, because when talents join together, a mechanism of the group's intended purpose activates and leads the people as a unified whole to the accomplishment of the collective spiritual task. Having joined together, such a group becomes much more than just a group of like-minded people where everyone fulfills their own mission. It becomes a unified instrument of the spirit, intended for accomplishing the task incomprehensible to human reason. Look for your team members, take your place in the orchestra and start carrying out not only your own individual spiritual tasks, but begin to implement the task of the whole group together. It will all become clear to you once you gather together. Soon, you will find people with whom you will be acting together as one single entity in order to fulfill the great and beautiful task.

You will succeed!

With great love for you,
God the Father

THE MESSAGE FROM METATRON

Hello, my dear listeners and readers.

Today the angelic entity called Metatron will be talking to us and not God the Father. He has never incarnated in humanoid forms, because his very important job in the Universe is to create and maintain the illusion of linear time for the third and fourth density worlds. He has already conveyed a message once through one of Kryon's channels. But today, his message is addressed to those people who have chosen to ascend and are currently in the process of rebuilding their lives, who have not yet taken their seat in the orchestra of ascension, but are looking for it and feel the need to do it now yet they just don't know how or where to go, what exactly to do and how to apply or express their unique divine gift.

Now, let's proceed to Metatron's message itself.

I greet you, my dear and beloved souls.

I am Metatron. I am responsible for creating and maintaining the illusion of the flow of time in the worlds of the third and fourth densities. I am here with you today to present you with a unique gift - the gift of being able to look into the future and see the timeline you are now on, after making a conscious choice to ascend into the fifth density of the Universe.

The task for each of you is very important, influential and doesn't always fit into your individual beliefs about how to turn the desires of your soul into reality, for the reason that your critical mind can't comprehend how exactly to fulfill the tasks of the spirit, what actions to take, where and how to direct your efforts. This can lead you to wasting a lot of energy on finding ways of expressing your gift and might bring many disappointments along the path of self-discovery. The entire universe loves you and wants you to take your place in the orchestra of ascension as soon as possible without an unnecessary loss of your energy or any disillusionments. You won't need to harden your character or strengthen the will. If you are reading this message, then you already acknowledge yourself as a divine spirit and can effectively carry out your mission. In order for this to happen, I offer each of you to take a look into your near future and see yourself based on your present conscious choice.

I offer you not just a vision or an image of your life in the future. I give each of you a chance to visit your future after you have taken your place in the orchestra of ascension and started to successfully execute your spiritual task. You won't just see yourself, you will experience your future self. You will be able to feel the new reality of your life with all of your senses - how you live, what you do, what you wear, what people are near you. You will be able to walk along your life's timeline back and forth as many times as you need to understand who you are and how you became who you are. This feeling of having found your place will give you a certain attitude that you need to maintain to help you determine your way and specific actions that need to be taken in order to achieve this, as well as identify the right people to collaborate with and places where you need to be.

This opportunity has not been available before. It was impossible due to the level of your vibration and your old self-perception. Even your clairvoyants could only see some fragments of the timeline of life, and even then they could not tell you definitely which one of all the possible future scenarios it was and which specific timeline it was related to. I offer you to see, live through and feel the experience of being in a particular future scenario that arose when you chose Ascension and asked God to guide you to your place in the orchestra of ascension. As soon as you expressed your clear intention, a particular timeline of events and their variants that you need to go through if you seriously and assuredly decided to fulfill the spirit's task activated. I understand very well how arduous it is to get rid of human doubts that still prevail in your consciousness. Taking actions as a divine spirit is very difficult and hard, because there is only a limited number of human behavior patterns inherent in your consciousness and you simply don't know how exactly the spirit operates in the human body when it becomes fully aware of who it really is.

That's why God gives you the opportunity to see how the divine spirit performs in your body, what kind of events take place in your life and how you respond to these events. Not only will you see yourself within these events, but you will also fully experience the state of being a divine spirit, which will give you confidence and begin to form new behavior patterns in your life not as a person, but as a spirit. This first step is extremely important for you, because, as you know, the most crucial thing is to start taking actions as a spirit, establish a certain model of behavior, gain experience in being able to act consciously as a spirit in your world.

To help you do this, I offer you an exercise that you need to do in order to see yourself and your future actions.

The Practice

Find a place where you can be alone and make sure that no one can disturb you. Switch off all electric appliances. Sit or lie down in a comfortable position, close your eyes and breathe deeply. Try to relax completely, let go of all extraneous thoughts and ask Metatron to show you the timeline in which you have chosen ascension and are in the process of accomplishing your spiritual task. Then imagine yourself in a completely white room, in which there is only one door. Walk up to the door, open it, and bravely go inside. The place in which you find yourself is the place where you need to be. Look around observantly. What do you see around you? Look at yourself: what do you wear, what shoes do you have on, touch your body, smell your body, feel the clothes and the shoes. Then carefully inspect everything that surrounds you, touch things, try to read the names and the labels on them if there are any. Smell the scents, remember them. Try to see if there is anyone around you. Who are these people, what do they tell you, what do they ask you to do? And then do whatever you wish to do at the place and in the situation you are in. Completely trust your spirit and simply do whatever you want to do, observing the reactions of the people around you. If in doubt, ask your Higher Self for clues regarding what you should be doing.

You will be able to navigate through your timeline back and forth as many times and for as long as you need. You can repeat this exercise as many times as it is necessary for you to comprehend your behavior as a divine spirit. It's a great way for you to learn how to act like a spirit and to grasp how it behaves in your body. As soon as this happens, you will be able to act as a spirit yourself, employing its patterns of behavior in your life.

Try to do this exercise when you feel rested, so that you don't fall asleep and get a sense of reality, not a dream. In this exercise, you can fully experience the entire array of five human senses and feelings, not to mention the emotions that you will feel.

When you come back, hold the sensations that you experienced and think how you could find your way to the place where you were, and how to start communicating and collaborating with the people who were there with you.

This concludes my message and I express my love for you.
Metatron.

THE NEUTRALIZATION OF OBSTACLES ON THE PATH TO YOUR CALLING

Hello my dear and beloved soul.

Today I want to talk to you about such an important aspect of your spiritual path as the neutralization of obstacles on your journey to your dream, everything that holds you back and prevents you from finally uniting with your Super-consciousness.

It is regrettable to say this, but somehow it is the people who follow the spiritual path that love themselves the least and don't value their talents and achievements highly enough. Your scale of values was established in the old world, in which everything has a monetary value. And if something is not recognized as valuable in the old world, either because no one wants to pay a lot of money for it or people of the old world don't know how to make money out of it, then it will be simply considered as worthless and useless. As a general rule, everything that you see around you in your world has a price, a certain label saying how much it costs. And you, my beloved souls, whether you want it or not, have to compare yourselves and your talents with these labels. Then it starts to seem to you that no one in the world would want what you possess and that it's worth nothing. Your self-esteem drops and the spiritual path becomes very difficult for you. Only because in your old world there is no such thing as what you do, and there are no labels on the old world shelves to compare it with, you think it's worthless.

I see and I know how many of you out there are engulfed by negative emotions because of this. It is very hard for you to start doing what your spirit wants you to do, what your true talent is, as you have nothing to compare it with in the world around you, and you keep asking yourself: "How am I going to live? There are price labels everywhere and the old world dictates us what is worth what. But what I have is unlikely to be needed by anybody. It's hardly possible that anyone would ever buy it from me as what I have does not have a price tag. So how can I do this? How will it help me create abundance and prosperity? How will it help me build a paradise in my life?"

Unless you neutralize your old negative attitudes towards yourself and stop comparing your gift or yourself with the amount of money you have or the price labels on the shop shelves, your ego will simply not let you act to the full extent of your power. It will constantly slow you down on your journey. Your critical mind will keep stopping you by saying "What are you wasting your time on? This will never put food on the table for your family! Go and get a job like everyone else and play by the rule of price labelling everything. No one needs what you do and no one would ever pay anything for that, whilst you have to pay the bills and feed the family!" I understand perfectly well how arduous it is to overcome this and start doing what seems completely illogical and what your critical mind considers absolutely pointless, insomuch that it would not bring any money, abundance or prosperity into your life. But believe me, my dear and beloved souls, what seems to you so illogical, futile and meaningless such that there is no price tag for it in your old world, is in fact exactly what the true desire of your soul is and what is so important to God. And no matter how hard it is for you to believe in and accept the fact that this is precisely what will make you a happy, wealthy and successful person in your world, it is truth indeed. This calling, which at first glance seems so pointless from the old world point of view, is actually very important to God. And trust me, He will reward you in full for your faith in yourself as his manifestation. If, of course, you believe in this in the first place.

My dears, please stop measuring yourselves against the labels of the old world and valuing yourselves in monetary terms. I want you to know that you are very precious to God, and your calling, your unique gift, is truly invaluable to the Creator. Start appreciating and loving yourself now, right at this moment. Even though your calling has not produced any results in the material world yet, acknowledge your worthiness and believe that you are really very dear to God. If you keep believing in this and pursuing your vocation despite the constant resistance of your critical mind, then very soon you will see just how valuable or, more precisely, how invaluable your gift turns out to be. In a short space of time, money, recognition, wealth and abundance will all come to you - all those things without which it is impossible to enjoy life in your world and feel yourself as a real Creator and a God-man worthy of God.

In order to neutralize the impact of your critical mind on you, as well as your negative emotions that rob you of energy leaving none for your favorite occupation, I will introduce you to a special meditation exercise, which will help you neutralize everything that's stopping you, namely, your underestimation of the worth of your gift in monetary terms and your critical mind's logical verdict that your actions, aimed at fulfilling the desires of your soul, are futile.

The practice

Find a place where you can be alone, switch off all appliances, take a comfortable position, relax completely and close your eyes. After that, take a few deep breaths and try not to think about anything. Then speak to God and ask him to show you your true worthiness in this world and simply enjoy what you see. The Creator will show you everything that you deserve and what you are. Try to see yourself from the outside, remember your clothes, remember the feelings of success and being important to the world around you. Look at the smiles of the people around you, how grateful they are to you, how proud they are to know you, how pleased and happy they are to socialize with you and to have met you in their life's journey. Memorize the feelings of joy and happiness that come from what you do, from the realization of how much it is needed by people and how grateful they are for what you do. Remember where you live, what kind of car you have, what kind of life you live. Bear in mind that this is only one of many possible futures, depending on your wishes, but the feelings of success, significance and one hundred percent accomplishment should stay with you. As soon as negative emotions come about, remember the feelings of success and joy, the feeling of being significant to God and his love. Recall the feeling of self-sufficiency and being confident in yourself and your abilities. These feelings should neutralize your negative emotions and demonstrate to your critical mind what it really tries to reject and deprive you of by resisting your soul's desires. Once the positive emotions replace the negative ones and your critical mind believes you and starts to implement the task of your spirit, you will succeed. And you won't have to wait long for the reward to come.

Be brave, believe in yourself, don't despair! Follow your soul's desire, your dream, and you will succeed!

I love you.

EMOTIONS AS A KEY TO CREATION

Hello my dear readers and listeners.

Today I'd like to talk to you about such an important part of your life as emotions. In the fourth density of existence, emotions are the key aspect of creation. To put it simply, in the third density, i.e. before your transition and the precessional alignment of your planet in 2012, for the materialization of your thoughts one had to focus their full attention on what they want, visualizing everything in details until it materialized (the length of time given to you was considerably longer than now for you to ascertain whether you really wanted what you were going to create or not). However now, having made a transition into the fourth density, many of you may already be realizing that the situation has changed - the old way of concentrating your attention on the desired result doesn't work as well as before.

My dears, the fact of the matter is that in the fourth density your emotional body unites with your physical body and as a result you get a unique instrument of creation, centered on your emotions. What does this mean? Now the vibrations of your planet are such that everything you feel is manifested in your life almost immediately, in relatively short periods of time. Much faster than what it took for your thoughts to materialize in the third density. At present, emotions are the key aspect of creation. After all, for you as a human, what you feel is more important to you than what you think, because your mind has the ability to persuade, making you believe that something is good and necessary for you, when in fact your actions contradict your feelings. Although later you will most definitely suffer and blame yourself for betraying your true desires.

Now your emotions are your universal indicator. You need to imagine what kind of emotions would produce what you really want in life. If you overflow with emotions right away, it indicates that your desire comes from your super-consciousness. If your mind tells you that something is right but at the same time you experience some sort of emotional discomfort, then you should reject such a desire straight away, because this indicates that this is not your true desire but the desire of the ego that wouldn't bring you happiness. That's why, if you feel heavy hearted, distressed or experience emotions of fear, despair, annoyance etc., then consequently these exact emotions will be reflected in the events of your life. Do you understand what I'm talking about? Whereas in the past it was your conscious thoughts and beliefs that created your third-dimensional reality, now situations that manifest in your life will reflect your emotions. Thus, if you want to create something, you need to evoke a steady emotion that you would like to experience when your wish comes true. If you start feeling joy and happiness that you would have felt if the wish was fulfilled, then very soon certain events will happen in your life and make you feel exactly the same way. And when it comes to the details of the situation that is being created, just trust your soul. Each soul has a true desire, the fulfillment of which will make you overwhelmed with joy and happiness, give you a sense of accomplishment and a feeling of being who you really are - the Creator.

That's why, my dears, don't get upset that what you used to do before doesn't work any more i.e. creating your reality by the power of your thoughts and by focusing on the desired image. Now it is absolutely essential for you to use your emotions to create the desired result.

Many of you, just like my channel, will come across the following difficulty: you may simply not know what you need to imagine to evoke the sense of accomplishment and overflowing joy from doing what your soul wants. That is why in the previous message I gave you the exercise that tells you how to ask God to show you just how valuable you are to people and how wonderful you will feel when you do the work of your life, the work of your passion. God will certainly show you a set of events that will be taking place in your life, as well as your actions and feelings, at the time of the fulfillment of your soul's true desire. You need to memorize that feeling, and use it every time you want to create something for yourself.

The second key aspect for actualizing something material in your life is the flow of energy through you and your life. If energy flows through you freely and in large amounts, then matter can manifest itself far more quickly than if it had to first overcome obstacles in the form of negative emotions or your lack of faith in what you do.

Therefore, if you want to create something tangible in your world, for example, abundance in all its expressions, your need to call on the Universal energy of abundance and prosperity and ask it to flow through you and your life, creating material abundance that you need all around you. Most importantly, the focus needs to be not on specific material things, but on the feeling you get when the universal energy of abundance flows through you and the feeling of simply being in that flow. Feel the emotions evoked by embracing abundance and prosperity, feel how the energy flows through you, feel a part of that flow, feel that you yourself are abundance. Invite the energy of abundance into your life on a regular basis, every day, every morning and evening, and focus on your feelings: evoke the emotion of happiness from receiving abundance and become abundance yourself. And believe me, it will very soon begin to manifest in your life in the form of events and material objects that will evoke those exact emotions that you experienced or would like to experience when you receive abundance.

And of course, my dears, don't forget about your unique mission in this world, about your divine gift and the desire of your soul. If you don't fulfill this desire, abundance won't come to you, because you can't experience the real emotions of happiness and pleasure by doing what you don't like. Don't try to deceive your true feelings, by keeping them within the confines of your critical mind. Instead, trust your feelings: if you feel uncomfortable, it means you are on the wrong track doing something that is not what you really want. Don't deceive yourself, just ask God to show you what your calling, your value, your gift is and you will experience genuine emotions that you would never confuse with anything else – and this is your unique and universal path indicator. If you feel joy, then you are on the right track. If your emotions make you feel uncomfortable, then you need to stop and change direction.

Always do what you feel is right and not what you think you should do. What was considered illogical in the three-dimensional world, in which the intellect and your ego ruled, i.e. "Doing what your heart tells you to do" was considered stupid, is no longer viable. In fact the opposite is true: you know the truth, and you know that your mind is only your mere servant in the material world - a servant that does NOT fulfill your true desires, i.e. the desires of your soul. Now emotions won't let you lose your way and deceive yourself. Always focus on what you feel, ignoring what your mind thinks based on its limited knowledge and life experience in the material world. Only then your decisions will always be right and you will always head in the right direction in life.

I believe in you, my dears, you will succeed!

With great love for you,

God the Father

BEAUTY AND HEALTH

Hello my dear and beloved souls.

I am God the Father, one of the creators of your Universe. What I would like to talk to you about today are such wonderful things in your life as beauty and health. Perhaps this topic may seem strange to many of you, but sadly the subject of loving your body as a manifestation of God, or, as you say, a temple of the Holy spirit, is quite painful for many of you. As you grow spiritually and your vibrations increase, you often think that your body lets you down, it's not as it used to be and you simply no longer like it, neither how it works nor how it looks. The same as my channel, who thinks that he doesn't look as masculine or attractive to women as before, because he has lost weight and has less muscle definition than before. Yes, my dears, your spiritual growth has led you to the need to be in a new body that completely fulfills the needs of your new consciousness and most importantly, your new desires, which arise as a result of the awakening of yourself and your soul's desires. Yes, they require a new body from you, or rather, a new attitude to your old body, which is simply changing and needing your love very much. The more you love and accept it for what it is, and strive to make it even better (if, of course, there is a need for that to complete the task of your soul), the faster it will meet your expectations. After all, when you know your body is strong, you feel much more confident as a spirit in a great physical carrier, capable of accomplishing any task set by the spirit.

Please understand, my dears, your body needs your love and care. If you, as a spirit, think that your body isn't good enough and experience negative emotions towards it, then the body as manifested matter will create problems that will evoke negative emotions in you.

It's not easy to start loving your body in such a difficult situation, when your consciousness has already changed, but the physical matter has not yet caught up with your new consciousness and increased vibrations. In addition, whilst your body adapts to a rapidly increasing vibration level, it can experience painful sensations, weakness, and sometimes even strong acute disorders and illnesses, causing you many troubles and problems. As a result, willingly or not, you may start criticizing your body, thinking that it's letting you down and at the same time wondering how you could accomplish any of the spirit's tasks (many of you have already realized what they are) in such a body. I am asking you, my dears, not to worry or be upset. Everything will fall into place soon, very very soon: your body will catch up with the level of your vibrations, you will learn to love and accept it, and most importantly trust it in any situation, which in turn will give you confidence in yourself and your ability to fulfill your mission, no matter how hard it may seem to you. My dears, believe me, it makes no difference to your spirit how many years you have lived in your body whatsoever. Your spirit can change the structure of the cells regardless of the state of the body, it just may take a little longer and a little more faith in yourself as a manifestation of God.

I would also like to say a few words about beauty, because in your world sexual attractiveness is very important for people in order to feel complete and happy. Believe me, I understand very well just how much many of you are now missing that feeling of being sexually appealing and attractive to the opposite sex, which may also compromise your self-confidence and prevent you from succeeding in your task.

I can assure you, my dears, that if you need to feel sexually attractive, then all you need to do is to look after your body, love it, and evoke and most importantly really feel the emotions that you would experience at the sight of your body being seductive and erotically appealing to the opposite sex, as often as possible. Do this as many times as required for you to memorize that emotion. Combine it with your love for your body and your daily work on it, and believe me, very very soon it will happily love you back and become as sexually attractive as you would like it to be. But, my dears, I want to warn you that you need this new, beautiful, seductive and strong body not to indulge in the process of satisfying the ego's desires, but to feel happy and enjoy life with those who are dear to you and whom you love - your dearest and nearest. If their bodies don't meet your sexuality and beauty ideals, make sure you tell them about your experience and how to make their bodies strong and beautiful. Then you would enjoy life twice as much and get aesthetic and moral satisfaction from the fact that your loved ones also have beautiful bodies and that they are also happy and grateful to you for it.

My dears, always remember about your spiritual-energetic nature and always try to treat others in the same way as you would want them to treat you. Armed with patience, you will see a result, which will exceed all your expectations.

My dear and beloved souls, these messages, except for the text, words and notions used by my channel to convert the received energy into thoughts and then into words, are in fact energy - a very powerful energy of high vibrations, which will help each of you to do what's necessary for your true happiness. When reading my messages, before all else, you receive the energy that remains in you forever, whereas words are only symbols used to activate it, with the help of your consciousness. Every time you read or listen to these words, you receive God's energy that stimulates the processes of change inside you, and sometimes even helps you actualize your true desires. I try to make my messages as brief and clear as possible and at the same time maximally energetic, containing the maximum amount of energy permissible for you.

The text produced by my channel doesn't always meet the accepted literary standards in your world and may sometimes come across as unpretentious or incoherent, but it doesn't really matter, because the energy that you receive is fully perceived in the right amount by your spirit, giving you a necessary impetus for action, as well as the information needed to implement your mission of fulfilling your soul's desire.

I really want you to be happy, enjoy your life and feel ineffable joy about your new and beautiful bodies, which they will soon become. Love them, and trust them and your spirit.

I love you.

THE DIRECTION OF YOUR PATH

Hello my dear and beloved souls.

I am God the Father, one of the authors of your Universe. In today's message, I would like to talk to you in more detail about what kind of actions you should take in the material world to accomplish your spiritual tasks and make all your desires come true.

First of all, each of you needs to call on the Spirit of Christ and go through the forty-day process of human personality destruction, which will help you re-evaluate all the events in your life not from a victim of circumstances' point of view, but from the Creator's perspective.

Secondly, all of you need to hear your soul's true desire, and understand what your divine gift and your mission, or at least the first stage of it, are. As I said before, your mission, as well as your talents will open up to you in stages, so that their greatness doesn't drive you into a stupor.

Thirdly, you need to learn to create any material wealth in your world using the new technique that involves your emotions and not your thoughts, as it used to be in the third density. Practice and you will succeed!

Fourthly, you need to understand the underlying common context behind your task and your subsequent ascension into the fifth density. Only in a group of twelve people you will become what you really are the most quickly and with the best result for both yourself and humanity as a whole. Don't be afraid, look for the like-minded people who will help you fulfill your mission and you will help them with their tasks. Together you will implement a common grand purpose and progress towards the fifth dimension together, whilst being constantly surrounded by the like-minded people. Nobody will distract or slow you down on your path. And, most importantly, when you stand in a circle together holding hands, call on the creative energy of the Universe and feel it, saying out loud "I am abundance and prosperity," you will invoke the enormous energy flow of abundance from the Universe and will actualize what you would have never been able to actualize by yourself. Even if each of you imagines different things, all of you will still feel one same emotion of abundance - and that's what important. That's why you need to look for your team members. The new world will be based exactly on such small groups - their achievements in science and technology, successes in different spheres of life, systems of production, new ways of subsistence and new types of social structure. Pursuing your desires and talents is as important as the search for the members of your group. Together, you can help each other discover yourselves more fully and faster, because you wouldn't have to overcome the barriers of your old social circle, which may have quite likely hindered your spiritual growth.

And, most importantly, I will repeat myself once again, absolutely anything is possible no matter how improbable it may seem! What you can't achieve by yourself as a single person, even though you are a God-man, you can do in a group of 12 enlightened people. Your groups' members were already decided upon before your incarnation. If you awaken first or if you are the first to realize the need for gathering such a group, the timing of events will lead you to assembling it. Ask God and your spirit to create a chain of events that will help you gather together into one whole. Ask God and your spirit to show you all of your team members and their talents, to help you help them open up, awaken them, and make them believe in themselves and in the uniqueness of their mission, as well as how extremely important it is for them and for all humanity in general.

Once you definitely know who your group members are, don't be afraid to come across as a madman, don't be afraid to approach them with an offer to join efforts in your spiritual and educational work, according to your talents and desires. Tell them the truth, without being scared of anything. Your fear of being disappointed, making a mistake or looking laughable can actually deprive you of an opportunity to meet someone who can help you greatly in turning your desire into reality. Besides, it is quite possible that they may have been waiting for your invitation for a long time but were reluctant to tell you this for the very same reasons that holds you back. Believe me, my dears, the joy of finding at least one of them will be indescribable. Just being able to talk to them and tell them about your wildest desires will make you rejoice. And you will be extremely surprised when they tell you "I want to help you and would like to do a certain part of the work, because that was always my desire." That's exactly how the further implementation of your ascension plan will be structured.

Practice to create your life using your emotions. Search for your gift and your true desires, discover and feel your worthiness and uniqueness, increasing your self-esteem. Find other people and help them awaken and believe in themselves. Create a group of like-minded enlightened people, which will operate according to the new laws of the future society on the new fourth-density Earth, where there will be no authority for the sake of subjugation, but the talents will be organized to benefit all humanity. You are the pioneers, and for that reason this process is most difficult for you, but believe me, my dears, you can't even imagine now how you will be rewarded for your efforts.

This was a brief summarizing message intended to outline the direction each of you needs to be heading in. Don't be afraid if you don't know what to do or where to go. Ask your spirit simple questions, ask it for help, and believe me it will lead you right to where and when you need to be. The rest will be up to you.

Take action, my dears! I believe in you and look forward to seeing your successes. I love you.

BE PROUD OF YOURSELF!!!

Hello my dear and beloved souls.

My dear lightworkers, you are those who have walked along your spiritual path for such a long time, fighting courageously with your consciousness, your old social circle and all kind of obstacles along the way. You are the great people of the new world, who, having heard the spirit's messages and having started to take action despite everything, repeatedly proved your courage. You are the most persevering people as you have come so far.

Believe me, my dears, it's not very long at all until the moment when you feel like real creators - Divine creations capable of creating infinite abundance in your life and harmony in all respects, Divine creations who have gotten rid of evil and fear forever, and by doing so exterminated it from your reality altogether, Divine creations who have conquered their passions once and for all, people who have acknowledged that they are God's children building a beautiful civilization on the Earth worthy of true children of their father.

If you are reading or listening to these words, it means that you are one of the strongest, most courageous, persevering and beautiful people on this planet.

Believe me, my dear and beloved souls, the time will come when you remember this period of your life with a smile and say "Oh yes, we went through a hard time, but we went forth no matter what, and that's the result of our persistence and faith and, of course, our infinite love for humanity." I know how difficult it is for many of you now as you are only just starting to release old categories of perception (your critical mind's perceptions) and master new laws and methods of creation in the fourth density of the Universe, which is new for you and into which your whole planet is relentlessly moving. You will be the first to try out all the new laws and methods of creation. Once you learn how to use them, you will build a paradise in your own life, and will then proceed to teach others - those people who wish to learn about it and live differently. You are the very people who, after assembling into groups of enlightened people, will be able to carry out grand purposes beyond a single person's effort. You will bring people wishing to live in a new way together and be that foundation, that pivot, around which the society of people of the fourth density Earth will be formed.

What a great deal of work you still have ahead of you, but at the same time you have already gone through a lot and have overcome an unthinkable for an ordinary person adversity. If only you knew how much happiness God and the entire Universe feel when looking at your achievements, seeing how your vibrations increase, how your consciousness and your understanding of the world and yourselves broaden. I know that many of you have begun to see the outer layers of the human aura, or began to hear the voices of angels, or sense and perceive energy, or simply foresee future events. All of this is the evidence of your spiritual growth, an indication that you are on the right track and there is just a little bit of time left until the end of your sufferings. Very, very soon you will become completely free, having learnt to form your own reality using your emotions and the energies of the Universe. Learn to use your unique gifts for the benefit of yourselves and humankind. Very soon you will learn to be and live as entirely happy creatures, aware of their divine origin and purpose. You will raise your self-esteem to the level of the Creator forever, and will never doubt your abilities again.

I am asking you, my dears, to be proud of what is already behind you. Look back and be proud that you have already realized so much, praise yourself for not stopping even when you were hurt and scared, and when at times it was unbearable. You kept going forward despite everything, because you had faith and somewhere deep down you remembered who you really are. Be proud of yourself, be proud of the much needed and wonderful work that you do for the planet and all people on the Earth. Be proud of your every word about the Spirit that comes from the heart. Be proud of your desire to help people realize and understand their nature. Be proud of the beauty of your soul, because you are indeed wonderful. Be proud of every single choice you have made, as it is exactly them that brought you here.

I ask you, my dears, to be proud of and enjoy the work you have done so far. You are beautiful and majestic, and you are doing everything right. You are on the right path. Very soon you will learn to create abundance in your life in a simple and easy way. Very soon you will learn to manifest any reality you need with the help of your emotions, by concentrating on them. Very soon you will find enlightened people like yourselves, your group members, and together you will start to carry out your group's grand purpose. Very soon you will become an example to many people, who will want to be like you and will follow you. You will lead them forward to the Paradise on the Earth, because this is your most important task, my dear and beloved souls. You are guides and teachers. You are those who have awakened and become aware of who you are first. You are those who will lead the way. Yes, it is a highly responsible job, my dears, but no one else can handle this job except you.

Believe in yourselves, for I am telling you that you are my children, and you will succeed in everything you need to do. You will overcome everything, You will surpass everything. You are the children of God, know this! Remember this every second of your life, feel it. Feel your divinity and live with this feeling. Enjoy your achievements, no matter how small they may seem to you. Be proud of them and bravely move forward to inconceivable goals, incredible adventures and great successes, knowing that you have already achieved all of these things and that they are all within your power. You can do EVERYTHING! Because you are God's children - my children. I love you so much, my dears, and I am so very proud of you.

With love,
God the Father

ABUNDANCE

PART 2

Hello my dear and beloved souls.

I am God the Father, one of the authors of your Universe. Today I am going to talk to you about such an important and urgent topic as money and abundance. Despite the fact that I have already conveyed a message to you on this subject before, I think it's necessary to do it once again, because for many of you, those who have moved into the fourth dimension together with the planet, money and abundance is a subject of current importance. I understand that for you it is the basis of life in the physical world and that without first stabilizing and harmonizing this aspect of life, you just can't move forward to accomplishing the tasks of your spirit and fulfilling the wishes of your soul.

Due to the transition into the fourth dimension, certain laws of creation and the principles of creating material wealth have changed. Using the feelings of abundance and the energy of money, and of course, focusing on your emotions that you will experience when you reach the desired result of material prosperity that you need coming into being, have all come to the fore. I will repeat myself in saying that you need to imagine what you want, experience the emotions of joy and happiness as if you have already achieved what you so passionately want, and these exact feelings are the key to creating material wealth.

I also want to draw your attention to such things as judgment and prejudice, which many of you experience with regard to the Universe's means and ways of sending you abundance and prosperity. My dear and beloved souls, the negative emotions that you experience because the Universe gives you what you want from somewhere different than you expected, just slows down the energy stream of abundance and prosperity flowing through you. Many of you still feel ashamed, weak and helpless due to the fact that things come to you not as a result of your direct efforts, which is what you got used to in your previous life, and not as a result of your direct actions on objects with an intention of making money. Money and material goods may be coming your way from your family, friends and partners in the form of gifts or help during difficult times. You may find that this is not quite what you would have wanted, because material things that come to you effortlessly from other people, as if for nothing, can make you feel useless, worthless and helpless. But, my dears, this is not true at all: if you receive something, it indicates that the energy flows through you, finding the easiest and least obstructed way to provide you with what you wanted.

I am asking you, my dears, please understand that the world has changed, and the societal concepts that have existed in your society for many centuries, have changed, therefore the criteria for your self-esteem must also change. I am asking you to stop categorizing yourself as a successful or an unsuccessful businessman/businesswoman, a good or a bad worker. Stop evaluating yourself through the prism of the following beliefs: the harder I work, the more money I get, and if I don't make money, that makes me a bad and unworthy person, and so on. All these concepts exist to keep you in the grip of delusions about the world and yourself. These beliefs were created by people desperate to have power over you at any cost.

The time has come to get rid of the old beliefs that hold you back, and start getting what you need by simply desiring and imagining it whilst simultaneously feeling the emotion that you will feel when the aspiration comes true. The stronger and the more real your emotion of happiness is, the sooner it will be manifested in life. It's possible that money won't be involved in the process at all, i.e. you receive the material object you wanted and not the money for it. Besides, it may come from sources you never interacted with before and for your critical mind it would be impossible to establish a cause and effect link between your actions in the physical world and where the material object came from. To the critical mind, it may seem as just a chance event. It would keep telling you that it doesn't count and you need to take control of everything, on the principle of "you do something, you get something." And if it's impossible, as it thinks, to control results, then it's not a reliable enough source for getting what you need. But you have already gone beyond logic and cause and effect relationships, which your ego sees. Your consciousness is already much broader. You now know that you stretch far beyond the visible borders of your physical body and your consciousness is infinite.

The sooner you re-adjust to the new way of creating material wealth, without imposing any conditions regarding the ways in which it can be acquired, feeling ashamed that you don't "earn" anything or feeling helpless and powerless, the sooner you learn to feel the emotions of getting what you want and cultivate them every day, imagining that the desired result has already been achieved, the sooner your wish comes true. And, of course, my dears, don't forget that you definitely need to take actions in your physical world, but they must only fulfill and be compatible with the desires of your soul. Do only what you like, what you want, without worrying about the results in the form of material possessions, based on the "done – sold – got paid" formula, as it used to be before. Do what your soul wants and materialize what you need. And very soon you will shift to a new mode of existence in the physical world. The energy of abundance and prosperity will flow through you without any obstructions created by your negative emotions, such as shame, feelings of worthlessness and uselessness or vexation and bitterness from doing something you don't love purely for the sake of money, at the same time acknowledging how meaningless it is for you.

Make imagining what you want your everyday practice. Evoke the emotion of happiness as if your wish has already manifested for you in your life. And at the same time enjoy what you do, fulfill the desire of your soul without any hindering thoughts such as "What will I get out of this?" Try to move away from a direct method of acquiring wealth through a direct action on objects of the material world.

I am asking you to stop thinking that in order to get something you need, you have to do a lot of things that would be of value to others but completely unwanted by you.

It's an illusion. It's a delusional belief of the old world. Please understand that everything you get, you provide to yourself through the parts of yourself that reside in higher densities. You should accept that you owe nothing to anyone in this world. Just do what you enjoy, manifest your most daring and at times incredible dreams and materialize what you want with the help of your emotions and feelings. Invite the universal flow of abundance and prosperity into your life every single day and rejoice at what you have and what you receive, regardless of how those things come into your life. You should know that no matter where it comes from, it is you who creates it, it is precisely you, and you should just enjoy it. The more joy you feel, the more powerful and greater the energy flow of abundance going through you and your life will be.

You should become happier and wealthier with each passing day. Create your life and enjoy it. Realize that abundance is infinite, absolutely infinite. It doesn't come from the existing Earth's resources, being distributed amongst all people. It comes from yourselves, whilst you are an extension of God - the great and infinite God, hence the abundance you create is also infinite.

I love you.

EVERYDAY LIFE AND ABUNDANCE

Hello my dear and beloved souls.

I am God the Father, one of the authors of your universe. Today, as a continuation to my previous message about abundance, I'd like to talk about everyday life and money. So many of you are experiencing problems and discomfort because you don't live the way you want to, and don't have things you would like to have in your everyday life. Very often, many of you deny yourself things thinking that you don't have a right to have them, can't afford them, it's not nice and a bad thing in general to have the maximum level of comfort in your world. So many of you, especially those who run the household day to day, evaluate yourselves on the basis of how many tasks you manage to accomplish in everyday life. Many of you constantly take on certain responsibilities, however the failure to accomplish them leads to severe self-criticism and low self-esteem and, as a consequence, you lose the ability to feel joy and happiness, or to perceive yourselves as good, proper, the best and so on. This applies particularly to women, because in most cases it is them who run the home, feel responsible for it and their self-esteem depends precisely on the state of household life.

My dear and beloved souls, I would like to remind you that your self-esteem has nothing to do with the quality of your household life and doesn't depend on your actions or inaction with regards to maintaining the home. Please remember that you are divine and loved by God unconditionally. You should constantly cultivate self-love in yourself, regardless of whether you have done something or not. Remember that your loved ones need your care. However if you are worn out, blame yourself for not completing some daily tasks, sacrifice yourself for household and family responsibilities, deny yourself things you want, making excuses such as lack of time, which gets eaten up by everyday chores, then of course self-love, and consequently happiness, are out of the question.

If you don't love yourself, it will be constantly reflected in how your loved ones treat you. Their behavior will always reflect your lack of self-love. As a result, you may start to resent your loved ones due to the fact that they don't appreciate you enough, don't love you and treat you badly. These feelings will evoke even more unpleasant emotions caused by the necessity of having to deal with everyday household tasks, as it is very hard to want to do things for those who don't love or appreciate you. All these contradictions will be exacerbated day after day, and will accumulate around you like a rolling snowball.

Many of you consider yourself obliged to do certain tasks whilst in fact you don't want to do them. Because of these feelings your responsibilities weigh you down and interfere with your spiritual development. After all, without the feeling of freedom and complete confidence in the fact that you are free to do what your soul wants, leaving out any "I must and I am obliged, because..." (and your ego will surely find many reasons for backing up the "must" and the "obliged"), it would be simply impossible to accomplish the tasks of your spirit, fulfill the desires of your soul, and form and develop the God-man personality. Without breaking all the ties of your social roles in the old world, you won't be able to become a fully competent man/woman of the fourth and later fifth density of the Universe (if you have the will to do it). Therefore, my dears, I am asking you to reconsider all your social roles and free your consciousness from all the "musts" or "obligations" to anyone or anything. Initially, no one owes anything to anyone except themselves. If you don't feel joy and happiness from what you do, if it doesn't bring pleasure and you only do it because you have to, then you are mistaken. You need to find the root of that problem, rethink it and break free from it.

Remember that all people come to the Earth equal and always have the freedom of choice. Each of you is equally divine and has the power to have what you want.

Here is a simple example: do you take care of your small children, because you "have to" or because you love them and their laughter, smiles and even antics make you happy?

Do you iron your partner's shirt because you "must" or because you love them and it's a pleasure for you to see them looking nice, knowing that you contributed to it.

I just want to tell you that you need to reconsider the motives of all your actions concerning your social roles in the old world. If it's not a sincere desire, which brings you joy and happiness, but a sense of duty or something else other than the sincere desire, then you must simply reconsider the motives of your actions. Without doing this, you won't be able to love yourself completely and unconditionally and as a consequence, your dearest and nearest won't love you the way you want.

I know, my dears, that it is very hard for you to understand it, accept it and even more so to actually start changing the situation after so many years of believing that you do everything right, whilst your self-esteem rested on that belief of yours. But, my dears, you are not who you thought you were. You are beautiful divine beings filled with love and power and I am asking you to evaluate yourselves from that particular point of view and base all your actions on this knowledge. And then you will begin to feel happiness from doing what you love to do, from the fact that it brings you joy, that you are free and happy and most importantly loved by yourself and others. And this is what your true state of being is – being in a state of love and happiness all the time. I know it may take a long time for this to become your permanent state of being, but I am asking you to try and do it today, right now. You will most certainly succeed. It is simply impossible for you to fail, because you are omnipotent divine beings filled with love and wisdom. Remember this always.

I love you.

THE NEW METHOD OF HEALING

My today's message is intended for healers – those who have been doing the work of Light honestly and perseveringly for many years, helping people to not only overcome their illnesses, but to also understand their causes and learn more about the new paradigm of the Universe, which inevitably emerges in so many people's lives.

My dear healers, previously, when the Earth was still in the third density, you could use energy healing very effectively. There were many healing schools on the Earth that used energy as a healing tool in their practices. With the transition of your planet into the fourth density, new methods of energy healing -much more powerful, effective and previously inaccessible to you, became available. The fact of the matter is that even if your vibrations were high and you were already in the fourth density of the Universe, your planet was still in the third density. As a result you were unable to use these new for you and very powerful energy channels for healing and helping people, as for them to work to the fullest extent possible and qualitatively, a connection with the planet is required, the vibrations of which had to correspond to the fourth dimension of the Universe.

Some of you have received this method of healing a long time ago, but just didn't know about it and couldn't use it. The fourth layer of your DNA has been activated in many of you, allowing you to fully use the new possibilities provided by your new healing tool. In each density of the Universe God's name sounds different, depending on the density vibrations and energy.

In the fourth density God's name is pronounced as PERKERUT. This is not a name and not just a word. It is a set of symbols, sounds and energy that represent the meaning of God in this density of the Universe. Therefore, in order to be able to use this new energy tool you need to receive and activate the channel of Perkerut in yourself. This channel will merge your three upper chakras - the 7th, the 6th and the 5th into one channel through which the new high vibration energy can pass through. This energy can be used for healing and providing various kinds of help to yourself and other people who are in need of it.

Perkerut's energy channel will be given to many healers and not only healers in the very near future. The only selection criterion will be the readiness of the person to acquire unique abilities offering ample possibilities. Only those who have overcome their desires for power over others, greed and unlimited thirst for carnal pleasures, will be able to become connected to Perkerut's channel.

Let me remind you, my dears, that a victory of your three lower chakras over these desires is only possible through the acceptance of the existence of all those things in yourself that many of you deny. I want to remind you that all of you have been created with such attributes by God solely for the purpose of you learning to overcome them. The existence of such low vibration energies within you does not mean that you are not worthy of your divine origin. It only means that God loves you very much and believes in your strength and ability to deal even with such strong desires as the lust for wealth, carnal pleasure and power and control over others.

The sooner you accept the existence of these energies in yourself and dissolve them in your unconditional divine self-love, the sooner you free yourself from those desires and become able to move to a new level of consciousness, capable of handling such a powerful tool as Perkerut's channel.

Healers, as a vanguard in the Army of Light, will be the first to have an opportunity to receive Perkerut's channel and use it for healing and helping others. In the fourth density of the Universe the possibilities of Perkeruta's channel are practically unlimited. You will find out about its other possibilities besides healing later, and those of you who are ready, will receive this information independently from their spiritual mentors, who exist without physical bodies.

This message is addressed to all healers on the planet: await the connection to Perkerut's channel, call on Perkerut's channel and activate it within yourselves. Once you get connected to the energy channel, you will know that it happened.

If you called on the channel and did not get it, it means that despite your overall high vibrations, there are still low vibrating energies present within you, such as the thirst for control, wealth and carnal pleasures, which you need to overcome by accepting them and then dissolving them in your divine self-love. Do it right now, without delay. And as soon as these low vibrating energies are dissolved in the light of your divine love, you will be able to receive the unique and powerful tool – the channel of Perkerut.

A little later I will convey information about other possibilities of Perkerut's channel and tell you how to use it exactly.

For now, it is enough for you to receive and activate Perkerut's channel and try out its healing power. With time, your body will adapt to this energy and you will be able to easily master other possibilities of this truly unique (unique for your world) tool of energetic influence.

I love you.

PERKERUT'S CHANNEL

Part 2

Hello my dear and beloved souls.

I am the one who created your world. I am the one who created all the worlds in your Galaxy. I am the one who created all the galaxies in your Universe. I am the Central Sun of your Universe. I am God the Father. I have come to you once again with messages and gifts, as now is the time to pass them to you.

Today I will talk about what kind of gifts you can get from your spirit, if you wish to do so, and what you can use them for. The spirit sees your clear intention and that intention is enough for us to provide you with new tools with the help of which you can completely transform your life and speed up your journey to ascension.

From my previous messages you found out about the channel of Perkerut and how it can be used for self-healing. It was only an introduction for those of you who were ready to take this information in, and who wanted something new and more effective on their way to ascension. As you remember, only those people who can accept the existence of the three desires linked to the first three chakras of the human body and reflecting your third-dimensional world, can gain access to Perkerut's channel. It is impossible to conquer these desires, whilst denying their presence within yourself will only lead to self-deception and slow down your spiritual evolution. Those of you who acknowledge the existence of these desires within yourselves (here I am talking about the thirst for enrichment at any cost, concupiscence, the lust for carnal pleasure, as well as for control and power over others) and at the same time can make a conscious choice in favour of the spirit, in favour of love, and be uninfluenced by these desires in their actions, have now received the channel of Perkerut. Many have already started using it without even realizing it.

Perkerut's channel is a multidimensional tool that represents the angelic universal geometry of the spirit. It is a universal tool for turning any wishes into reality and for achieving any goals, but it is only for those people who have realized the futility and pointlessness of always yearning for more at any cost, striving for dominance over others and lust. If all of these human desires are still quite fundamental to your intention, then Perkerut's channel won't become accessible to you under any circumstances, until your vibrations increase and you can see something supremely greater than what you can achieve, what you can possess, what you factually are and what you can strive for. As soon as this happens, these passions will lose its grip on you. You will be able to act in accordance with your conscious choice, and not under the influence of passions of the three-dimensional world.

Those who have already received Perkerut's channel will have to learn to use it and cognize all its spiritual facets and possibilities, as well as areas of your life where you can apply it and what results you may get. Each facet of Perkerut's channel corresponds to a particular energy element, which is denoted by a certain symbol of spiritual geometry, or if you like, a certain name in Angelic language. Of course, in the world of the spirit and high vibrations there is no any written language, there is only a language of vibrations and frequencies. But for you it is essential to have a designation or a special symbol to be able to activate those threads of the channel that you need at a particular point in time.

There are seven symbols of the channel altogether, the same as the number of chakras in your body and the seven notes in music in your world.

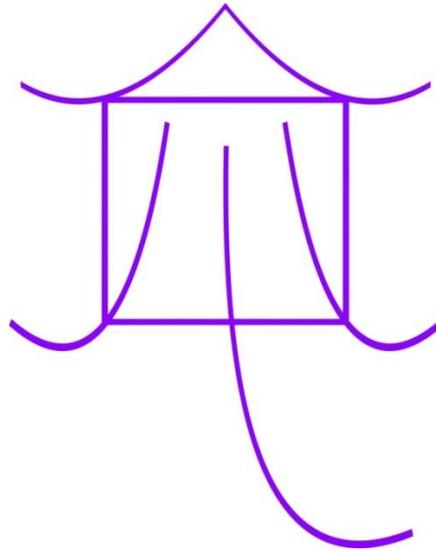

My channel will create images of the symbols by hand. He will be given their names and a detailed description of their capabilities.

Now, the first symbol of Perkerut's channel is the fundamental one. It represents the channel of Perkerut itself. It is a combination of several notions and energies. It is pronounced SI-KA-RI-NAL and looks a certain way. I know you may say that it looks like a little house with three legs. Well, it does. Imagine that this little house is three-dimensional and each of its six facets -there are four walls, a ceiling and a floor – is a facet of the channel that can perform certain functions. The other six symbols of Perkerut's channel are placed on each of the other facets of the house. Depending on what you need to do, a certain facet of the channel gets activated and turns its side toward you, on which there is a particular symbol corresponding with that facet, and the channel starts to work.

Below are the descriptions and images of the six symbols of Perkerut's channel.

Stage I

SI-KA-RI-NAL

The symbol has the following meaning:

SI - signifies the divine fire, the violet flame, which burns away everything negative. It is able to destroy any energy blocks and turn any dark energies into light. The divine purple fire is cold, so it doesn't cause any burning sensation. It works very delicately. SI represents the high vibrations of the seventh chakra, your divinity, and the energy of God himself.

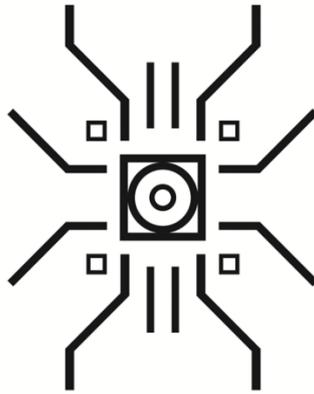

KA - represents your soul, or more specifically, the essence and consciousness of your Higher Self, your golden angel, i.e. God's consciousness penetrates into your life and you acquire the awareness of the Creator, you can see the world through God's eyes.

RI - represents the will to transform your human nature into a divine being. Your pure intention, your wholehearted belief in going forward and a pure heart without any "impure desires" (thirst for wealth, carnal pleasures, power and control) - only the divine love.

NAL - signifies the uncompromising striving of your soul to unite with God, having become a whole being endowed with the human body, divine capabilities and consciousness.

Stage II

JEE-RU-FA-LIM

The next stage of mastering Perkerut's energy channel is the stage of becoming aware of the consciousness of any creature on Earth. This means that by letting the channel of Perkerut pass through any being and then receiving it yourself, you can acquire information about all the thoughts, emotions, beliefs and secret desires of a particular being at a particular moment in time. This ability will give you certain advantages over other human beings, however, if you correctly understood the meaning of the components of the Perkerut's energy channel first stage symbol and used it for a certain period of time, then God and the channel itself will be able to definitely know the level of readiness of your consciousness to receive such a powerful tool. Using it in conjunction with the desires for power and control, wealth and carnal pleasures is simply impermissible, as it would only delay the evolution of the soul. It would slow down in the process of satisfying the desires of the first three chakras, which are simply impossible to satisfy because the void can only be filled with the energy and love of God.

The symbol is translated as follows:

JEE - signifies the Divine love for all living things coming from your heart, for everything that you see with your mind's eye – the enveloping, all-consuming, unconditional and all-forgiving love. JEE means accepting all beings the way God created them and loving them unconditionally.

RU – signifies the transfer of all the clusters and imprints of one's soul to you. At the moment of transfer RU only copies them, giving you a chance to experience them fully, but at the same time without creating dense clusters, so that your own clusters don't get replaced with that of someone else.

FA – signifies the ability to see and feel everything there is in the consciousness of the subject as well as in their subconsciousness – something that the soul itself may not be aware of.

LIM - the final stage in the process of becoming aware of the consciousness of any other soul or creature. As a result, you acknowledge that you are One with all other God's creatures and with the whole Universe, having realized the futility of division, enmity, control, etc.

This symbol is needed not to read minds, but to understand the unity and kinship with all other souls in the Universe. This will help you to understand, communicate and interact with any beings. It will help you eliminate any misunderstanding, enmity and the like from your relationships, understand the motives of the soul, which you did not understand before.

Stage III

LEE-ZEE-STA-RIM

This symbol is very powerful. It is able to release any person from the constraining shackles in the form of fears, beliefs and self-evaluation criteria, on which the whole human nature is built on, on their road to freedom and happiness.

The symbol can dissipate the heaviest and densest energy in the form of three whales on which the whole world of man rests.

But the symbol will only work if the person wants it of their own will and is consciously ready for radical changes in their life.

After working with this symbol the shackles will break immediately and the life will begin to change the next day, you will only need to pay attention to the events happening in your life and take notice of their implicit meanings.

Use this symbol boldly, without being frightened of anything, and it will set you free.

But that's not all. The symbol is bilateral and has one more purpose. It is able, after the destruction of the shackles of the human consciousness, to attract everything one needs in their life – everything one truly wants. Don't be afraid to dream: everything you need to be happy will be granted to you by your spirit. I PROMISE!!!

The translation of the symbol is as follows:

LEE - means the destruction of everything that enfetters or inhibits you. Lee, just like a sword blade, cuts through the energy shackles around you, which impede your progress on the spiritual path toward happiness and freedom.

ZEE - signifies fears that arise on the journey to your soul's true desires. Fears don't let you dream about the life that you deserve. Fears try to convince you that nothing would ever work out hence you shouldn't even start dreaming, shouldn't even try.

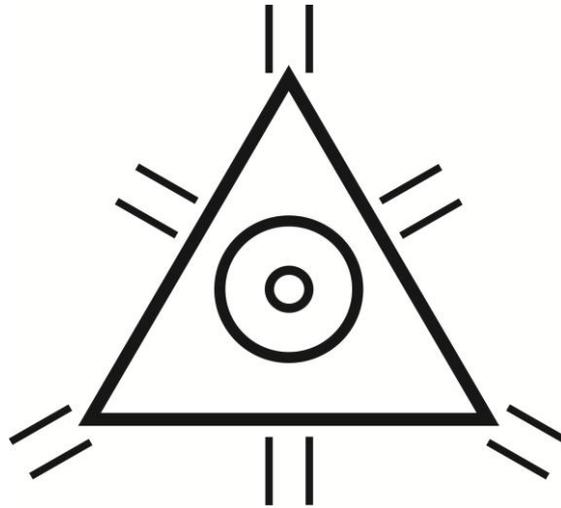

ZEE makes you face your fears so that you can destroy them, acquire freedom and the ability to dream.

STA – signifies a possibility to draw the true desire of your soul into your life, which manifests itself in your consciousness when you remove the shackles and overcome your fears. STA helps you focus on this desire and directs all its energy into it, thereby attracting the fulfillment of the desire into your life.

RIM - the final symbol that signifies self-realization, which you reach when the desire of your soul is actualized. It is precisely your self-realization to the fullest extent that leads your soul to happiness and makes you feel yourself as the Creator.

Stage IV

FEE-REE-STA-LIM

FEE-REE-STA-LIM – it is the symbol that opens Astral vision. It gives you the ability to see energy and its vibration level. Once put into the 6th chakra and into the person's eyes, it gives the ability to see auras, entities, energies and so on.

The meaning of FEE-REE-STA-LIM is as follows:

FEE – the spiritual vision or subtle vision – the eyes of an angel.

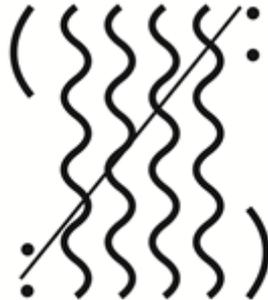

REE – here it represents the oneness of all things, separated by form, but intrinsically unified in their structure - the oneness of man with the material world as one sole energy of the Universe, the love of God for all things.

STA – the power of the one who sees energy and their ability to change its vibrations merely by the power of consciousness, thereby changing energy properties and as a consequence, the properties of material things.

LIM – the process of energy transformation as the purpose of man's existence on the Earth.

Stage V

KEE-REE-STO-LEE

KEE-REE-STO-LEE - the symbol of the "sky" that opens a portal into the fifth density and speeds up the process of ascension in the physical body.

The meaning of KEE-REE-STO-LEE is as follows:

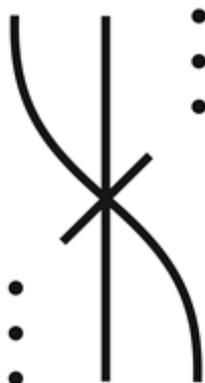

KEE - a doorway or a passage into another world – another density or reality. The symbol is needed to activate the doorway at any point in space, in order to create a passage through the protective membrane between the Universe's densities.

REE – signifies the absolute all-seeing eye, which will only let through someone worthy and ready to go through the transfer.

STO – signifies the unconditional and selfless intention to pass through the doorway for one purpose only – to unite with God and for the soul to evolve up the divine spiral.

LEE - signifies the shift itself, i.e. the process of one's atoms acceleration to the speed of a density into which they are moving (may be painful).

KEE-REE-YUNGH-CHONGH

KEE-REE-YUNGH-CHONGH - the symbol of the center (or the heart) of the Earth (Gaia). It opens a passage to powers and energies of the Earth, helps all living things gain physical strength, increase growth and development.

The translation of KEE-REE-JUNGH-CHONGH means the following:

KEE - signifies a doorway to the center of the Earth and its capabilities. It reveals to man the path to unity with the planet, to oneness with Gaia.

REE - symbolizes the symbiosis of man and the Earth, representing them as one unified spiritual, physical and energy component, a part of the unified ecosystem.

JUNGH – signifies the merger of human consciousness and the consciousness of the Earth into one single consciousness: the Earth understands you, whilst you know its thoughts and feelings as if they were your own. This is necessary for a harmonious symbiosis of humanity and Gaia in the new density of existence.

CHONGH – represents the human being as a conduit through which the divine energy flows into the heart of the Earth, spiritualizing, nourishing and revitalizing it.

YUNGH-YUNGH-CHONGH

JUNGH-JUNGH-CHONGH opens a portal to a world in which vibrations are even heavier than in your world and where low vibration entities dwell (demons). The portal only works in one direction. It can be opened at any time to return an entity into its world. Also, warriors of Light may need the symbol to go through the portal to either get information or to enlighten darkness.

JUNGH - signifies a world of heavy low-density vibrations, whilst the double sound opens the portal one way only and doesn't let anything through into our world.

CHONGH – signifies the all-permeating, all-clearing, all-forgiving and darkness dispelling light.

Darkness as an element of the Universe must also develop and evolve spiritually.

WORKING WITH THE SYMBOLS.

The work is carried out inside the cube.

The Warrior of Light (the healer) stands in the centre of the cube with their back to JUNGH-JUNGH-CHONGH facing the FEE-REE-STALIM symbol

JEE-RU-FA-LIM  on their right

below – KEE-REE-JUNGH-CHONGH

In order to activate PERKERUT's CHANNEL one needs to do the following:

call on SEE-KA-REE-NAL

call on the symbols of the sky  and the Earth . They will light up and a pillar of white light will come down from the Universe into the cube, through the warrior into the ground.

This light goes from the heart of the warrior to the four symbols on the lateral sides of the cube.

It is possible to rotate the cube around the pillar of light, placing the required symbol in front of you and using it.

If you think about how long you had to meditate and concentrate your attention on what you needed for before, then one could say that you can now swap your “aeroplane” for a new “supersonic aircraft.”

After your beloved planet completed the precessional alignment and moved into the fourth density, all the people living on it got an opportunity to get their abilities back, which were lost as a result of the decrease in their vibrations from the vibrations of angels to the vibrations of human beings. And since you repeatedly proved your determination and clear intention to follow the spiritual path, the spirit is happily giving you this new tool, which will help you remember who you really are a lot faster, and transform your lives into a fairy tale that many of you have been afraid to even dream of.

My dear and beloved souls, I really want you to enjoy your life on the Earth, and not suffer from it. I want you to be happy and have everything you need. Please understand that you deserve it and there is no need whatsoever for you to be like people who possess everything in your world, but whose ways of achieving this 'everything' are anti-spiritual and unacceptable to you. You can have anything you want. Just allow yourself to dream about it and don't condemn yourself for your aspirations for wealth or luxury, love and happiness with your loved ones, for wanting a complete realization of your talents and a recognition and appreciation of the work that you do.

Many of you are now going through very difficult times, many of you are losing jobs and sources of income. Everything that used to bring you money and create comfort in your life, has disappeared or crumbled. All this, my dears, is because the spirit eliminates everything that has been restraining your talents and aspirations, all the things that wouldn't let you realize your dreams and start doing what you were born for, what you came to this Earth for. Yes, in order to encourage you to change your life, the spirit has created all the necessary conditions for it. That's the only way for you to free yourself from misperceptions, fears, negative beliefs and informational garbage. The spirit has purposely taken away the old from you and given you the new, so that you can change your life and start living the way you want, using new spiritual tools and not the old methods of acquiring material comforts, money and a luxurious life, considered anti-spiritual by you. Please understand that everything that surrounds you is made of energy – it is all just a picture. You have a right to see and experience the picture you want, and that is a perfectly spiritual desire. God-man should not be living a life of need or a life of restraint - they must live in prosperity and have full freedom of thought, action and creation. This is the only way to build a paradise in your life, and consequently on the Earth as well.

I see each of you free and beautiful, living in prosperity and luxury, with those whom you love and who love you. I see you as true creators, who feel happy and self-realized in fulfilling your desire to create beauty. So be it!

I love you.

God the Father
